Fair Weather Brings Out a Record Vote A1 Over the United States

THE three-cornered presidential contest sent to the polls today voters who took an unprecedented interest in the outcome of a campaign that had been waged with unusual bitterness. Mid-day reports from every quarter indicated a national country-wide, record-breaking vote. In addition to the election of President and Vice-President and members of Congress, thirty-three States are voting for Governors and thirty-six for legislatures which will fill vacancies in the United States Senate.

Generally favorable weather conditions prevailed. In certain sections of the Middle West, particularly in Southern Illinois, overcast skies and threatened rain augured not well for the polling of heavy votes, but the electors, notwithstanding, continued their steady march to the polls.

NEW YORK VOTE HEAVY.
New York City is casting by far the heaviest vote in its history, as also are all the other cities of that state. The rural vote in New York likewise is heavy. In Cincinnati 60 per cent of the total vote had been cast before 11 o'clock and the vote throughout Ohio, while slow on account of the size of the ballot and much reported scratching, was progressing with an unprecedented earnestness.

In Chicago the early hours saw every polling place filled with long lines of voters waiting to get into the booths. Very few voters in Chicago availed themselves of the opportunity of using the voting machines, which fact was considered to indicate that there was much scratching of ballots by members of all political parties.

In the Pacific coast states the early voting was heavy, despite inclement weather. In Seattle, Portland and Northern California.

VERMONT INTERESTS.
The contest in Vermont was interesting, despite the fact that the state election was held in September, and the vote was extremely heavy. This

ELECTION RETURNS

FIRST RESULT IN

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Taft carried Acushnet, the first town in the United States heard from today. The vote was:

Roosevelt, 50; Taft, 104; Wilson, 52.

In 1908 Acushnet gave Bryan 12, Taft 118.

For Governor, Walker (Republican) carried Acushnet by 95 votes to 37 for Bird (Progressive) and 38 for Foss (Dem.).

Vote in 1911: Foss, 25; Frothingham (Rep.), 38.

Acushnet is a small town adjoining New Bedford.

UTICA, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Utica complete for President: Wilson, 5380; Taft, 4531; Roosevelt, 3205.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Returns for President in today's election from five out of 1102 voting precincts in Massachusetts give Roosevelt 311; Taft 693; Wilson 395.

The same precincts in 1908 gave Bryan 490; Taft 952.

Ten out of 1102 voting precincts in Massachusetts give:

Roosevelt 837; Taft 1713; Wilson 973.

The same precincts in 1908 gave Bryan 801; Taft 2344.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 5.—Norwell voted as follows: Roosevelt 104; Taft 97; Wilson 78.

In 1908: Bryan 40; Taft 161.

Returns for Governor today in eight of 1102 voting precincts in Massachusetts give: Bird, 696; Foss, 576; Walker, 1004.

The same precincts in 1911 gave: Foss (D.), 741; Frothingham (R.), 1424.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 5.—Returns for President and Governor from ten out of 231 voting precincts in Boston in today's election give:

For President—Roosevelt, 563; Taft, 767; Wilson, 1234.

For Governor—Bird (Prog.), 741; Foss (D.), 1713; Walker (R.), 754.

Returns for President in today's election from 20 out of 1102 voting precincts in Massachusetts give: Roosevelt, 1479; Taft, 2800; Wilson, 1479.

Same precincts in 1908 gave: Bryan, 1151; Taft, 2775.

ROME, N. Y., Nov. 5.—The city of Rome, complete, gives for governor:

Sulzer (Democrat), 1618; Hedges (Republican), 1392; Straus (Progressive), 1051.

Same district in 1910 gave Dix (Democrat) 1995; Stinson (Republican) 1722.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 5.—Complete returns from the first three counties in the state heard from give plurality for Roosevelt. The counties are Paulding, Haralson and Colquitt.

DETROIT, Nov. 5.—Partial returns from 15 out of 177 precincts give: Taft, 567; Wilson, 429; Roosevelt, 203.

PORTLAND, Maine, Nov. 5.—Hurricane Isle, the first Maine town reported, gave for President: Roosevelt, 4; Taft, 11; Wilson, 7. In 1908: Bryan, 7; Taft, 6.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Returns from 17 election districts out of 3093 in New York State outside of New York city give: Taft, 2828; Wilson, 2782; Roosevelt, 1490.

Same in 1908: Taft, 4918; Bryan, 2818.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 5.—Returns from West Greenwich, the first town heard from in this state, give for President: Roosevelt, 12; Taft, 77; Wilson, 7. In 1908: Taft, 125; Bryan, 10.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 5.—First returns from Baltimore coming from two widely separated precincts, give: Taft, 74; Wilson, 305; Roosevelt, 157. Same in 1908: Taft, 341; Bryan, 264.

Trouble May Follow
Disagreement of LONDON, Nov. 5.—It was officially announced in Constantinople today that fighting has begun between the Bulgarians and Turks at the Tchatalja forts, according to a special dispatch from that city. The result of the fighting is not stated.

The Bulgarians have occupied the territory between Tchatalja and Tchatalja, completely surrounding the Turkish force in that district.

The water supply of Constantinople was cut off today by a large Bulgarian force which occupied Derkas, at the end of the line of Tchatalja, from which point the aqueduct supplying the Turkish capital starts.

A Bulgarian column formed of detachments from Drama and other captured towns is marching on the seaport of Kavala, on the Aegean sea.

An allied force, consisting of Bulgarians from Kark and Greeks from Yendije-Vardar, is proceeding by forced marches to Saloniki.

Except for a few struggling detachments of men in fighting formation and fleeing Turkish troops, the country beyond Tchatalja forts, forming the last Turkish defenses before Constantinople, is now clear of Ottoman troops.

LARGE CROWD OF MEN AND WOMEN AT POLLS EARLY

Annexation Amendment Certain of Being Crushed Under Load of Ballots Throughout State
Is County's Paramount Issue

Five Factors Keep Wise Ones
Politicians Guessing; Awakening
Democracy One of Them; Suffragists' Likes and Dislikes Is Another

J. R. KNOWLAND SURE OF RE-ELECTION

UNDETERRED by sullen skies and chilly, damp weather, the voters of Oakland began at 6 o'clock this morning streaming to the polls in a steady volume that is expected to keep up all day. A number of causes unite to insure that today's vote will be by far the largest Alameda county ever cast in any election. Politicians are trying to reckon on the following factors:

The reawakening of the Democracy, and a big vote for Wilson and Marshall.

The first opportunity women have had in California to vote a Presidential candidate.

The desperate attempt by the Socialists to capture the State vote in behalf of J. Stitt Wilson for Congress.

The two months' campaign against the Sixth Amendment limiting inter-county consolidation.

The problem of how much of the Taft strength will go to Wilson.

WILL BE DEFEATED.

Practically the only result upon which everyone is agreed is that the Sixth Amendment will be overwhelmingly defeated throughout the county. This is the paramount issue to Oakland and Alameda county, exceeding even in interest and importance the question of Democratic or Republican success. Even those who were resolutely opposed to suffrage were induced to re-examine the understanding that they would vote on no other proposition on the ballot.

The campaign to defeat the Sixth Amendment was the one to receive the unanimous support of Oakland and surroundings. The result is only a question of how large the margin against the measure will be. One hundred automobiles are engaged in carrying voters to the polls in behalf of those who are fighting to defeat consolidation.

"TRUNCATING OF LIFE."

Former Senator Frank W. Leavitt, who has been directing the campaign, issued a statement at noon today predicting Southern California and the rural districts would more than set any majority which the amendment might receive from Francisco and vicinity. "It looks to us as though San Francisco was going to get the truncating of its life," said Leavitt.

Charles E. Snook, chairman of the Bull Moose county committee, expressed the opinion that Roosevelt would receive a majority in Alameda county equal, if not exceeding, that which he would receive at the State primary.

John J. McDonald, chairman of the Democratic County Committee, is sure that Wilson will carry the county by a margin. "The tide has turned," said McDonald, "and Alameda county is going with the tide."

The Socialists are very active about the polls, particularly Elmhurst and San Leandro. Politicians fear that the undercurrent that exists in the minds of the Taft and Roosevelt following paved the way for a heavy vote by the Socialists.

VOTING IS ORDERLY.

Throughout the morning hours the voting proceeded in a fashion without trouble of any kind except the usual confusion of precinct lines and an occasional roar from a perplexed Republican who had just awakened to the fact that he could not vote for the President of the United States.

There is every indication that Congressman Joseph R. Knowland will be easily re-elected, together with all the legislative publican candidates. Knowland believes his majority will amount as high as ten thousand. The Socialists figure that Wilson to receive 23,000 votes and Knowland 31,000, with J. Luttrell, the Democrat, getting only 4000. This prediction is based upon the assumption that Luttrell will not be able to secure the Democratic vote and that the voters who supported him at the primary will join with many Democrats in support of Stitt Wilson.

CONCENTRATE EFFORTS.

The Democrats have concentrated all their efforts on George Beck of Livermore in the Assembly in the Third District, and Henry McFie in the Twenty-fourth. Both are being supported by A. A. Rogers of San Leandro and others.

President Taft Cheered As He Goes To Polls

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—President Taft took the full afternoon and evening when he voted shortly after noon. He voted each of the six separate ballots, five of which are devoted to local affairs. Before visiting the polling booth the President visited with a number of Cincinnati friends, including Congressman Nicholas Longworth, son-in-law of Colonel Roosevelt. President Taft was cheered as he drove through the streets on his way to vote.

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 5.—Miss Cleopatra Gutierrez, the 16-year-old school girl who was shot during recent violence by her youthful lover, Joseph Foxen, died early from her wounds. Young Foxen was arrested last night in the Mexican consular office and held by the police.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Secretary of the Interior Fisher is acting President of the United States today.

OAKLAND RAINFALL RECORD:
BAROMETER GAUGE.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 5.—Two men were killed as a result of a quarrel at election booths in Kentucky today.

In Lee county, Kentucky, Thomas Campbell was killed and John and James Campbell were arrested, charged with having shot him.

In Anderson county, Oregon, Frank was killed by County Treasurer Harding and his son, it is charged.

VOTE IS HEAVY IN ALL PARTS OF UNITED STATES

Fair Weather Brings Out Record Crowd of Electors to the Polls

Also was the case in Maine, where all three of the leading parties are making a desperate fight to gain the electoral representation. Contrary to general expectations, in view of the fact that party lines have been so strongly drawn, practically no disturbances were reported from any section of the country. Few arrests for violations of the election laws were made.

All of the leaders of the three parties adhered to their previous predictions of success for their respective candidates. However, there was nothing in the apparent attitude which would indicate what the result would be.

President Taft spent the morning hours at the home of his brother, Charles P. Taft, in Cincinnati, and early in the afternoon prepared to cast his ballot. The President was confident that he would be returned to the White House.

FIRST TO VOTE.

Governor Woodrow Wilson was the first of the three candidates to cast his vote. Governor Wilson dropped his ballot in a polling booth in an engine house in Princeton, N. J., and as he emerged from the voting booth, smilingly observed that he had "voted the straight Democratic ticket."

Colonel Roosevelt cast his ballot at Oyster Bay in a fire truck house. The Progressive party nominee for President will hear the returns at his home on Sagamore Hill.

Governor Johnson, the Vice-Presidential nominee on the Progressive ticket, could not return to California in time to vote, as he filled out Colonel Roosevelt's speaking engagements in the East after the Colonel had been shot. Governor Johnson spent the day in New York City and will hear the returns tonight at the Progressive party headquarters there.

Governor Marshall, Democratic candidate for Vice-President, cast his vote in Indianapolis.

The vacancy on the Republican ticket caused by the death of Vice-President Sherman was not filled and Sherman's name remained on the ballots.

VOTING IS SPEEDY.

Reports received by the national chairman of the three parties showed that heavy votes were being cast throughout the country. Half of the vote in Massachusetts in the cities and towns had been cast by 11 o'clock. Republican state headquarters in New York said their advisers were that two-thirds of the vote in New York had been cast by noon.

The leaders said that in New York would be recorded the smallest percentage of a non-voter in the history of the state. Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and in fact every state in the Middle West cast an early heavy vote, with indications that all records would be broken.

splitting was reported in Michigan. Several citizens who voted in the September primaries lost their right to vote in New Jersey by failure to register. Estimates differ as to the hour when the results on the Presidential ticket will be known. Congressional Political leaders figuring on landisles say the result would be known by 9 o'clock, while others are inclined to the belief that it will be midnight.

NEW YORK BUSY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—All records for early and heavy voting appeared today to be broken in New York state, and reports from nearly every county indicated that record polls would be made. There was generally fair weather in all parts of the state. There were no reports of disorders, and while the voting in many districts was the heaviest in years, there was little trouble in recording the ballots. The total registration in this city is over 500,000, and a vote of well over 250,000 is predicted. A vote of about 1,200,000 is expected in the state outside of New York City. The vote four years ago in the city and state was 1,678,000.

In the first four hours of balloting not one of the 10,400 police doing election duty in New York City made a report of any trouble.

WILL REACH MILLION.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Large crowds were at the polls this morning to cast a record vote. Clear, warm weather was promised. That the state vote will total more than a million is estimated by political headquarters, and it may reach 1,250,000. Besides 29 presidential electors, Illinois today is voting for state officers, including governor, 27 members of Congress, 25 members of the State Senate and 133 members of the State House of Representatives.

The election of a number of Progressive members to the legislature, with the balance close between Democrats and Republicans, might mean a deadlock in the house over its organization and a deadlock over the election of two United States Senators.

POLLS ARE GUARDED.

More than 5000 men, police, private detectives and volunteer watchers are on guard at the polls in the city of Chicago. It is estimated the vote will be within 5 per cent of total registration, which is 444,915.

The polls here will close at 4 p. m., but throughout the state the polls will be open until 5 p. m.

"The silent vote" will decide this election," said David Mulvane, western Republican campaign director, today. "We have no speaking of fraud anywhere," he added.

As Mulvane was speaking he was superintending the dismantling of Republican headquarters.

BEGINS WITH RUSH.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 5.—Voting in Milwaukee began with a rush at 6 a. m., the registration being heavy. The weather was clear and cool.

LARGE VOTE CAST.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 5.—Election morning opened cloudy, but with prospects of fair weather. A large early vote was cast.

CONCEDED TO WILSON.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 5.—Fair weather is expected to bring out a full vote. The state is conceded to Wilson.

INDICATE HEAVY VOTE.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 5.—Rapidity with which the ballots were being cast here this morning indicated a heavy vote. Weather fair and cool.

ST. LOUIS BUSY.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—A bright, clear day greeted early voters and indications were that a heavy vote would be cast throughout the state.

SNOW IN DAKOTA.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Nov. 5.—Despite snow today a heavy vote was indicated. The polls opened at 8 and will close at 5.

REFLECTED.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 5.—Party managers expected the various campaigns which have been waged would be reflected today in an unusually large vote.

TOUCH SCRATCHING.

TOLEDO, Nov. 5.—Early reports today, especially in the surrounding precincts, that a very large vote was being polled with much scratching.

HEAVIEST IN HISTORY.

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 5.—It is expected Kansas will poll more than 375,000 votes today, the heaviest vote in her history.

DRIZZLE OF RAIN.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 5.—Western Kentucky's early voters went to the polls in a drizzle of rain.

LIGHT IN TEXAS.

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 5.—With the usual Democratic majorities regarded as certain only a light vote is being polled in Texas.

VOTE IS EARLY.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 5.—Voters were waiting in line for polling places to open in many towns and cities in New Jersey this morning and reports from throughout the state indicated an unusually early vote.

VOTE ON ELECTORS.

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 5.—With favorable weather conditions Maine was expected to cast its greatest vote in a presidential year. Electors only were to be voted upon.

TIGHT IS BITTER.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Nov. 5.—A heavy vote is being polled throughout North Carolina. So bitter is the fight in the three-cornered primary race for United States Senator that little attention is being paid to the national ticket.

UNUSUALLY LIGHT.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 5.—Early indications were that the vote in Arkansas would be unusually light. The election of the Democratic ticket is conceded.

BOTH MAKE CLAIMS.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 5.—Louisiana's usual Democratic majority is being given today in the national election to Governor Wilson. Both Progressives and Republicans are claiming the next largest vote.

DEMOCRATS CERTAIN.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 5.—Fair weather prevailed and a large vote is being polled. Democratic leaders declare the election of Wilson electors is assured.

VOTE TO BE HEAVY.

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 5.—Democratic leaders estimate that not more than 150,000 votes will be cast in Mississippi today and that the Democratic vote will be in excess of 100,000.

LONG LINES AT POLLS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 5.—Long lines of voters greeted the opening of the polls here this morning. Early indications were for a heavy vote. The skies were overcast.

VOTING HEAVY.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—Voting in Philadelphia in the early hours was heavy in many districts. The polls opened at 7 o'clock and will close at 7 p. m. The weather is clear and it is expected a record vote will be cast.

SEEK RECORD BALLOTING.

PHOENIX, Nov. 5.—Clear weather brought out a large early vote in the cities as well as in the country districts today. Efforts were made to bring out a record vote.

LACK OF ENTHUSIASM.

TUCSON, Nov. 5.—An unexpected lack of enthusiasm marked the early voting today in the presidential election. Balloting was steady, however, and a full vote is expected.

CONDITIONS IDEAL.

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 5.—Voting throughout West Virginia began briskly and indications were that a record vote would be cast. Weather conditions are ideal.

ARMY OUT EARLY.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Massachusetts' army of voters began its march to the polls today before the rising of the sun. Registration figures showed 604,000, or 46,000 more voters than before recorded. A vote exceeding half a million was indicated by the early balloting. The day opened with a blue sky.

BEGINS WITH RUSH.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 5.—Voting began with a rush at 7:30 o'clock this morning. The polls will close at 6 o'clock, but because of a com-

WEATHER CLEAR.

DETROIT, Nov. 5.—When the polls opened at 7 a. m. voters stood in line at nearly every booth in the city. Record vote was anticipated. Weather was clear.

CROWDS GATHER EARLY.

OMAHA, Nov. 5.—Large crowds were early at the voting booths in Omaha. The sky was overcast. Reports from the state are for a heavy vote.

HEAVIEST RECORDED.

OMAHA, Nov. 5.—In spite of the state law which forbids the free conveyance of voters to the polls the voting in the first hour today in regard to the heaviest on record. Reports from different sections of the state show general interest in the election.

SOUTH DAKOTANS BUSY.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Nov. 5.—With fair weather and indications that a heavy vote will be cast in South Dakota. Polls opened at 8 o'clock and will close at 5 p. m.

BALLOTING SLOW.

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 5.—Voters hastened to the polls this morning to escape threatened rain. The weather is cloudy but mild. Balloting is slow.

POLLS OPEN LATE.

DETROIT, Nov. 5.—Reports from throughout Michigan indicated that a record-breaking vote was being cast here and in the western and central sections. No disorder has been reported.

INDIAN SUMMER MILDNESS.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 5.—With weather of Indian summer mildness the voters of this state went to the polls today. The early hours saw very heavy voting.

WILSON FAVORITE.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 5.—While Alabama was conceded to Wilson it appeared a heavy vote would be polled today.

COUNT TO BE TEDIOUS.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 5.—Early reports from Tennessee points indicate a heavy vote. The count will be tedious.

VOTE ABOVE NORMAL.

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 5.—A record-breaking vote is being polled in New Hampshire today. The weather is ideal.

BALLOTING LIGHT.

MONTPELIER, Vt., Nov. 5.—A small vote was the prospect in Vermont when the polls opened today despite fine weather.

RECORD VOTE DUE.

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 5.—With weather conditions ideal in all sections point today to the largest vote ever cast in Utah. The polls will close at 7 o'clock.

WYOMING CLOUDY.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 5.—Cloudy weather greeted early voters here. Indications were for probable clear weather by noon throughout Wyoming except in the northwest.

CROWDS IN DENVER.

DENVER, Nov. 5.—The opening of the polls this morning was awaited by large crowds. Indications are for a record-breaking vote. Ideal weather prevails throughout the state.

IDEAL WEATHER.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 5.—Ideal weather prevailed early today. With no rain for two weeks road conditions are excellent, with prospects that the full rural strength would be voted.

SEATTLE IS WET.

SEATTLE, Nov. 5.—Seattle voters will go to the polls in rain. This weather is normal, however, and will not reduce the vote materially. An unprecedentedly large vote is expected.

STORM PREDICTED.

PORTLAND, Nov. 5.—An all-day rainstorm threatened election day here. But political leaders predict that 75 per cent of the registered vote would be cast in spite of the storm.

MONTANA SKIES CLEAR.

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 5.—With weather clear and cool it was indicated that 90,000 votes will be polled in Montana today. The registration was 112,000.

CLOUDY WEATHER.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—A heavy vote in this city appears certain. A large early vote was cast. The weather was cloudy.

VERMONT DOUBTFUL.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vt., Nov. 5.—Voting was regarded as a doubtful state today because of uncertainty as to the size of the Progressive vote. The balloting was much heavier than expected.

PRAYER IN WEST VIRGINIA.

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 5.—For the first time in the history of West Virginia hundreds of women appeared at polling places urging voters to support the prohibitory amendment, which is dividing attention with the national tickets. Prayer meetings are being held in all sections.

WOMEN AT WORK.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 5.—In Milwaukee and other large cities women are stationed at convenient distances from polling stations and as the voters appear each one is solicited to vote for the equal suffrage amendment.

RECORD-BREAKING VOTE.

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 5.—At 10:30 today the Kansas skies were still overcast with clouds, but the vote (100,000 and county is very heavy. In Topeka a record-breaking vote is expected.

"Raiders of Mexican Border" Is Full of Thrills and Excitement.

In "Raiders of the Mexican Border," at the Camera, is to be seen one of those realistic photo productions the motif of which is taken from the recent insurrections to the southwest of the United States. It is replete with actual scenes from the war along the border and at times is so vivid that people cannot refrain from rising in their seats.

There is a complete battery of artillery in the production, as well as over 500 soldiers, shown in action. Two troops of cavalry and the rebels are pictured meeting the federal troops.

It takes over 2000 feet of film in three reels to produce this dramatic motion picture. It has been secured for today and tonight only and should not be missed, not to mention several other new pictures that are offered.

Tomorrow "Souls in Torture," an Italia, will be put on. This is by the same company that gave the world "The Fall of Troy."

The fortune telling and telegram booths were crowded during the entire evening, as was the police court. The last was a notable popular and greatly crowded when Mayor Mott was arrested and brought to trial.

Tonight everything at the bazaar will be auctioned off by Auctioneer Munro.

If Your Physician Has Failed Consult

We Cure—Where Others Failed Here Are the Testimonials

Dear Dr. King: The testimonial I am to give you comes unasked. I had been a great sufferer from piles for six years, and at times I was unable to do anything. A friend advised me to see your office. I did so, and now am a well man, after the pain. He said: "If you go to Dr. King, you will be cured." I said: "I would take anything for ease." He said: "You go to see Dr. Chan & King, and if they do not cure you, I will pay for the medicine myself." I did so, and now am a well man, after the pain. A Neglected Political Issue.

The election of Taft would mean industrial peace. The election of either Wilson or Roosevelt will mean disturbance. In the case of Roosevelt it will mean general disturbance in our political system, and renewed efforts to revolutionize our system of government, or rather its reconstruction on principles that were discarded when the constitution was framed. Wilson stands for a change of policy; Roosevelt stands for radical changes in the organic law—changes that will limit the powers of Congress and the judiciary and enlarge the powers of the executive, and virtually destroy the sovereignty of the States.

It is not a change of policy that Roosevelt advocates, but a complete change in our form of government. He goes to the extreme of centralization and paternalism. He wants the Federal government to take over to itself the powers expressly reserved to the States in the constitution, and to vest in the President the power to do things which he thinks ought to be done even though Congress should refuse to authorize such acts.

In other matters his program is equally radical and revolutionary. He believes the President should be a dictator, supreme in his authority over Congress and the courts, or even the letter of the constitution.

Although we believe the election of Wilson would be temporarily unfortunate, our opinion is that the election of Roosevelt would be a positive calamity—the beginning of an attack on the fundamentals of the constitution and the system of government based upon that document.

We can stand a change of policy much better than we can stand a change of government. If the new policy be injurious we can reverse it in a short time—four years, at the longest—but it will take a long period to right the ship of state in case we tear the constitution to pieces and create a despotic system with a President vested with large undefined powers.

This side of the issues involved in the present campaign have received too little attention. It is of transcendent importance, however, and we believe the returns will show that this vital question has not escaped the voters. We shall soon know what the people think about it, but whatever the result we are confident that the principle of popular government will be preserved.

No matter whom we elect President today, the country is safe. To doubt that is to doubt the stability of free institutions and the ability of the people to govern themselves.

Let the Allies Settle With the Turk.

Turkey is on her knees suing for peace, but she is addressing her prayers to the great powers with whom she is not at war, not to the Balkan States with whom she is at war. Virtually she is asking the great powers to intervene in her behalf. They should keep their hands off. The present war is the consequence of the Berlin conference. Then the powers intervened to protect Turkey. They deprived Russia of the fruits of her victory. They agreed to protect the Christian inhabitants of Turkey in Europe and Armenia from the rapacity and misgovernment of the Ottoman. That pledge was never kept. This war is the result. The Balkan States formerly subject to the Turk have united to redress the wrongs of their coreligionists in Turkey, and now that they have beaten the Sultan's armies and are thundering at the gates of Constantinople it would be a shame for the Christian powers to step in and give Mohammedan rule in Europe another lease of life. Let Turkey make her peace with the powers with whom she is at war. The Balkan powers declare they will not permit the great powers to make peace with Turkey over their heads. They are right. A peace so made will be arranged in the interest of the powers and against the interests of the Balkan States and the Christians resident in Turkey. It will be the same sort of a cheat the Berlin Treaty was. The holders of Turkish bonds should not be permitted to dictate the terms of peace. If they are, there will be no substantial redress of Christian wrongs and the Moslem conquerors will be permitted to still defile with blood and misrule a Christian land. It will be an outrage on a brave people who are fighting for civilization and human rights if the farce enacted at Berlin in 1878 is repeated.

Have you voted? If you have not, you have not done your duty as a citizen. Go to the polls and register your wishes and your honest sentiments. Don't neglect to do it.

Race Prejudice, North and South.

The note of race prejudice rises clear and strong in the clamor of public indignation against Jack Johnson. It is plain that popular feeling against the colored bruiser is heated and accentuated because he is black and the victim of his lust a white girl. If she were black or he white there would be no outburst of wrath all over the country. Race pride is outraged to a much greater extent than moral sentiment. Which is not to say, however, that Johnson's conduct is not entirely reprehensible or that his color is any excuse for what he has done. But his offense is not greater because he is a negro, although his complexion aggravates it in the minds of people generally.

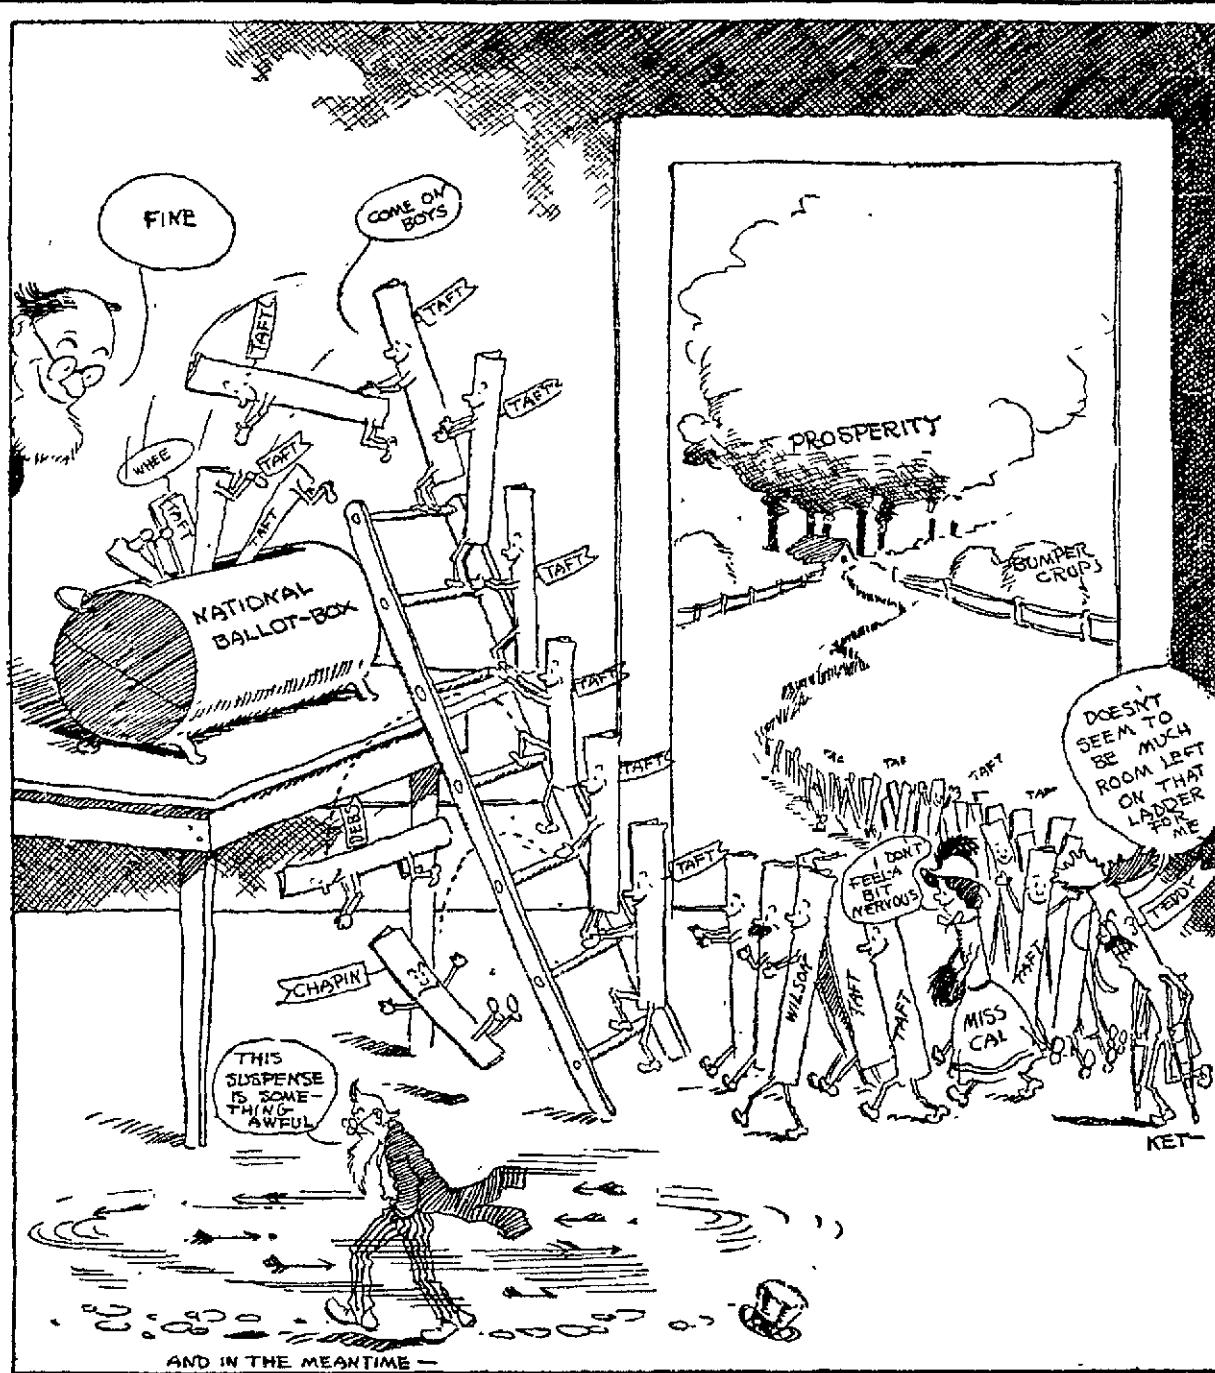

White men are responsible for the bad eminence Johnson has achieved. They have placed him on his ignoble pedestal and made him a popular hero. White men have dignified his brutal calling and made it profitable. They have filled Johnson's pockets with the money he spends so lavishly. They have made him what he is, and now they are filled with wrath at the result of their own work.

Johnson has taken himself at the valuation given him by white followers of the ring, and has applied the morals and standards of the prize-ring to his rule of conduct with white women. He has simply followed the instincts that govern white men of his type.

Jack Johnson would be impossible in the South. Race prejudice there is more rational and really fairer to the negro than in the North. There is room, opportunity and encouragement for a man of Booker Washington's type, but no place, no opportunity nor encouragement for men of Johnson's type. Booker Washington is respected and honored by the white people of the South, but they will not stand for a man like Johnson—if he be black. Unfortunately they will stand for white men who are just as bad, but their prejudice against the negro has in it an element of discrimination that is lacking in the North.

Booker Washington recognizes this discrimination in a recent article printed in the Century magazine. "In the North a negro who ran a large grocery store," he says, "would be looked upon as a curiosity. The Southern white man frequently buys his groceries from a negro merchant." In the South, he remarks, it is a common thing for white men to employ negro builders and contractors to erect their dwellings and business houses. A negro has no chance of getting such jobs in the North. The truth is, that negroes of the Jack Johnson type are lionized in the North, while the South honors its Booker Washingtons. The negroes are not denied industrial opportunity in the South, but the North gives its favor to Jack Johnson and his like.

The comparison is odious, but it is just. In the South white men buy their groceries from negroes and hire negroes to build their houses, but they will not drink in a negro saloon, nor fraternize with negroes at the ringside. Northern white men will not patronize a negro storekeeper nor give negroes building contracts, but they will patronize joints like Johnson's Chicago cafe, make heroes of negro bruisers and meet negro gamblers and toughs on terms of equality.

And this rule of conduct is not confined to the lower class of whites, but men of education and standing consort in this fashion with the worse element of the negro population. Then they grow furiously indignant when the natural consequences result, when the negro rough treats white women as white men of his class treat women, and as white men lead him to think white women should be treated.

Yerba Buena or Goat Island.

A rose by any other name will smell as sweet, but Goat Island is not as poetic and euphonious a name as Yerba Buena; moreover, it is not true to the ancient designation. Yerba Buena was the name given the island by the Spaniards. Goat Island was the appellation given it by Americans who did not know what the Spaniards called it, and did not care, having a sort of contempt for Spanish names and Spanish pronunciation, nor any ear for the musical cadence which makes the Spanish tongue the most liquid of any language.

But the name Yerba Buena was officially restored, and Yerba Buena it has been for many years. Now Goat Island has been substituted for Yerba Buena by some functionary at Washington, who would doubtless officially designate San Francisco as Frisco if he had the power. He should be compelled to pass the remainder of his days, like Robinson Crusoe, on an island having only goats for companions. He is a person of goat ideas and goat aspirations.

It would be interesting to know the identity of this individual. There are a few things out that people with sensibilities above the goat order would like to cast at him. A man like him would pasture goats in the cemetery holding the remains of his ancestors.

An energetic protest should be made against this barbarous change of name. It is an outrage on the State of California and a crime against good taste. Yerba Buena the island has been called since the coming of the Spanish friars and Yerba Buena it should remain. Goat island! pshaw! likewise, dammit!

TURK SHREWD BUSINESS MAN

It comes rather as a surprise to learn from a recent consular report that the Turk, whom many of his neighbors are trying to annihilate, is becoming a shrewd business man.

Formerly the merchant bought furs, silks, or what not to the fullest measure of his capital, and having shipped them to a foreign market, sold at a good opportunity at the best profit obtainable. Now he begins, not the buying, but at the selling end.

"He sells first what he has not yet bought, and then what he has not yet sold, very often with money that is not his own but has been advanced by a bank," says the report. "This facility of disposing of other people's capital, together with the enormously increased transport facilities, enables him to trans-

Twenty Years Ago Today

Four of the brightest young members of the bar in Alameda County are Republican nominees for Justices of the Peace in this city and in Brooklyn and Oakland townships. Judge F. B. Ogden has served for many years on the Justices' bench with such fairness as to win the admiration of every litigant and practitioner that has had occasion to appear in his court. The time served on the bench by J. J. Allen and Harry Melvin is much shorter, but both have shown peculiar fitness for the duties they have to perform.

Manager Leach did not present "The Still Alarm" this afternoon as announced. Having rented the auditorium to the Republican Alliance for a mass meeting this evening, he was obliged to disappoint his patrons.

Colonel Dewald, the prize twirler of the Oakland nine, was batted out of the box at the Oakland grounds yesterday afternoon and he was forced to retire. German took his place and saved the day for the home team, the score being 14 to 9 in favor of the Colonels.

Rev. Father McSweeney left on the Overland train yesterday for New York. He accompanies his grace, Archbishop Riordan, in the capacity of secretary to the council of archbishops, which will be held in St. Patrick's cathedral, New York, on November 15. During his stay in New York, Father McSweeney will attend to the purchase of some church furniture for St. Francis de Sales church and will visit and inspect the new organ being built for the church by Odell Brothers. Rev. Father Kirby, assisted by Rev. Father Byrne, is in charge of the parish during his absence.

The Presbyterian Synod of Alameda county met at the First Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon, Revs. H. H. Rice and F. H. Robinson being among the speakers.

Had Serious Lung Trouble; Now Well

Somewhere there exists a vast amount of scepticism as to the possibility of curing Consumption. We state none but facts, and are sincere in what we assert. If we were afflicted with Tuberculosis, we should do precisely what we ask others to do—take Eckman's Alternative promptly and faithfully. The reason we should do this and warrant we have for asking all Consumptives to take it, is that we have the reports of many recoveries, one of which follows: "1815 Susquehanna Ave., Phila., Pa. 'Gentlemen: For two years I was afflicted with hemorrhage of the lungs, the cough was incessant and I was unable to do any work. A family physician advised another climate, as to remain would probably be fatal. However, I remained, and in February of 1902, I was taken with a severe attack of pneumonia. When I recovered sufficiently to walk about the house, I was left with a fearful hacking cough, which no medicine I had taken could alleviate. It was at this time, March, 1902, that I learned of and started taking Eckman's Alternative. In a short time my cough was gone and I was pronounced well. Since that time I have had two slight attacks of pneumonia, and I have resorted to no other medicine to effect a recovery. 'I am at present in excellent health and feel that as long as I can obtain Eckman's Alternative, I have no fear of Consumption. I cannot speak too highly for the good it has done for me.'"

Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. For sale by The Drug Co. and other leading drug stores. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.

IN THE BALKANS

Only extreme poverty, a traveler says, will drive a Bulgarian into domestic service. As a rule, widows are the only servants to be got, and they will become cooks or housemaids only if they may bring all their family with them. Servants insist upon being introduced to and shaking hands with all visitors, and will leave upon the least rebuke. The only way to keep them is to let their wages fall into arrears. "So strong is the sentiment against doing anything in the nature of mental work that I know of a case where a girl refused to fetch medicines from the chemist for her own mother. But the same girl would work in a stranger's garden or do needlework, because these occupations are considered honorable for Bulgarian women."

Bulgaria's awakening, according to the London Chronicle, might almost be called an awakening from the dead. "The disappearance and resurrection of Bulgaria," says Sir Charles Elliot, "are probably without parallel in history. For more than 300 years the national life was suspended. In 1834 Kinglake proceeded from Belgrade to Constantinople and must have passed straight across Bulgaria. Yet, in the well known description of his travels, "The Orient," he makes no allusion to that country or its inhabitants. Even forty years ago (written in 1900) the name Bulgarian was almost unknown, and every educated person coming from that country called himself a Greek as a matter of course."

Servia has been described as the peasant state of Europe. The Serb is a man of primitive emotions and simple tastes. With the exception of Belgrade there are few towns in Servia worthy of the name. Practically the whole population dwells on the land, husbandry and pig rearing being the staple industries. A system of peasant proprietorship prevails. Servia has practically no poor. Every grown man in Servia can claim five acres of land from the government, and this land and its produce are exempt from all claim for debt.—Chicago News.

MISS RUTH SLACK IS BRIDE-TO-BE

Jurist Announces Engagement of Daughter of Judge Zook.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Judge and Mrs. Charles W. Slack have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ruth Slack, to Edgar Thompson Zook of San Rafael. Miss Slack is a graduate of the University of California and since her leaving school has spent most of her time in travel. With her sister, Miss Edith, she returned a short time ago from Europe, where they spent the spring and summer with several of their school chums. Since leaving the university they have been entertained a great deal by their friends on both sides of the bay. Both of the young women are also fond of athletics, and excel in many sports. Judge Zook has the prestige of being the youngest member of the bar to achieve the high office of Superior Court Judge in California. He was graduated from the University of California nine years ago, and is a member of the Zeta Phi fraternity, the Skull and Keys and other societies. He is a son of Frank Zook of San Rafael. The wedding will unite two families long identified with society and with the bar of California. The Zook family is one of the pioneer families of Marin county. Miss Slack has been more than a belle in society, her unusual mental endowments making her as popular with the older set as she is with the young people.

PROGRESSIVE PARTY TO CONTINUE ORGANIZATION

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Whatever happens at the polls today, the Progressive party is to continue its organization and the party leaders will meet in Chicago on December 10 to make plans with this end in view. The headquarters in New York City will probably be maintained and the propaganda of speeches and literature is to continue.

DRIVE HORSE TO DEATH

SAN JOSE, Nov. 5.—Manuel Balas, 17 years old, and Raphael Balas, 18, are under arrest here as the result of a joy ride with a team of livery horses. Yesterday they rented the animals from a stable, and taking three girls, drove to Milpitas. From there they drove back to the Guadalupe mines and were returning when one of the horses dropped in his tracks.

"Made Differently"

NAMES IN ESTATE CASE ARE HIDDEN

Senator Roseberry Refuses to Lift Mystery From the Strange Suit.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 5.—Senator Roseberry is firm in his determination not to reveal the names of persons involved in the substitution of a spurious child for a child of a former prominent Santa Barbara woman, the famous "Lindloff" case, branding the child with the scarlet stain and bringing a prospective legal battle interesting to two continents. Roseberry is authority for the statement that the alleged father of the child is high in the British nobility and bears a name which would be instantly recognized on both sides of the water as one of the great names of the world. With this clue it is believed the northern records will disclose who he is.

Four years ago, according to Roseberry, a British lord was sent to this country for reasons best known to his family and himself, becoming a renegade man with a large monthly stipend. He met and loved a plain but beautiful American girl. She had not the lineage or caste which his lordship required, but through many generations is required when a sign of the famous name enters into matrimony. The British relatives were bitterly aroused, but the bride and bridegroom were happy. In 1910 they went to San Francisco from the East, and the word went forth that on December 11 of that year a son and heir was born. The English relatives were not satisfied with the mere birth announcement and started an investigation, backed by almost unlimited means, pursuing relentlessly the investigation. It is asserted that the San Francisco birth records have been changed in one entry made that day wherein the advent of a baby boy was originally set down as "illegitimate." Afterward amended and the names of the father and mother and the date of birth were inserted. When it is alleged that all concerned in the birth vanished, but the nurse was finally brought to light and made affidavit that the child is the son of the Englishman's wife, Roseberry says, sticks staunchly to the story that the child is his father's. He holds the child resembles him strikingly. They are not now in California, but within a few days the next step will likely be an application of the child, through a guardian, for a declaration of illegitimacy and restoration to its proper name. The Englishman's wife brings sound proofs.

TEVIS WINS WAGER RIDES WILD HORSE

Walter Hobart Stays on Back of Fiery Steed Amid Cheers.

HILLSBOROUGH, Nov. 5.—William Tevis Jr. won a wager of $100 and proved himself a horseman of rare ability yesterday afternoon on the private polo field of Charles W. Clark at Hillsborough by riding a broncho owned by C. M. Hirsch, detective, Walter S. Hobart, the crack poloist, had the losing end. Before Tevis performed the feat no member of the San Mateo Polo Club had been able to mount Hirsch's fiery steed. It took the owner three months of hard toil before he could ride the horse. Young Tevis and Hobart had finished a practice game of polo when Hirsch appeared, mounted on the broncho. Immediately the horse became the topic of conversation. "I can ride any horse on my father's stock ranch," said Tevis, and I know that I can mount this broncho," exclaimed Tevis. "Bet $100 you can't," exclaimed Hobart. "You're on," was the reply. Then commenced a series of laughs at the expense of young Tevis, for twice in attempting to mount the broncho he was hurled to the ground. His third attempt was crowned with success. Several poloists who witnessed the feat cheered him. No sooner had Tevis reached Hobart on the animal when the losing clubman paid his bet in five and twenty-dollar gold pieces. Hobart remarked that the winner earned his money.

BUILDER BRINGS SUIT AGAINST LORD DECIES

LONDON, Nov. 5.—A prominent building firm brought suit yesterday for $2,000 against Lord Decies for work done at Sefton Park prior to the marriage of his lordship to Vivian Gould.

Counsel for the plaintiff said the work had to be done so quickly because Lord Decies was in a hurry to get away to America to be married and was anxious to have the house ready so soon that it was impossible to draw up a formal contract. A schedule of prices recognized by the building trader was agreed upon and the work was carried on day and night. The cost was over $100,000.

Counsel for Lord Decies contended that the prices charged were exorbitant. Lord Decies, he said, had already paid $25,000 for the work, but had put in a counter claim for $25,000 for bad work. He claimed that the whole work was only worth $50,000. A leading architect testified that Lord Decies had told him that there would be no difficulty about the money, which was being found for him. The work, he said, would be done very plainly as his own money was being used and on an unimpaired basis. The case was adjourned to further hearing.

MYSTERY VEILS KILLING OF SAN FRANCISCAN

DENVER, Nov. 5.—With the death of John Laverne-Gower, an English capitalist, at Colorado Springs, the mystery surrounding the supposed poisoning of seven persons at the Mary Murphy mine, near Buena Vista, two weeks ago, has deepened. Five deaths already have occurred among persons who ate in the boarding house kept by George E. Collins, general manager of the mine, and who were dining on the food eaten at the boarding-house disclosed no traces of poisonous poisoning.

ARLETT WINS CONTRACT. STOCKTON, Nov. 5.—The bids for the erection of the new Union High school were opened by the Board of Education and Arthur Arlett of Fresno was found to be the lowest bidder and will be awarded the contract. There were two bids received and they ranged from $125,000. Arlett's bid, at $125,747. It is estimated that the school will cost $150,000, which will not be included in the bid, which will make the total cost of the four buildings $181,747.

WOMAN POISONER IS FOUND GUILTY

Twenty-five Years to Be Meted Out to Mrs. Lindloff for Crime.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Mrs. Louise Lindloff, spiritualist and crystal gazer, was found guilty of murder last night and her punishment was fixed at twenty-five years in the penitentiary. She was charged with poisoning her 11-year-old son, Arthur, in 1907. Mrs. Lindloff laughed hysterically and cut a sneering glance at the jury when the verdict was read. Later she collapsed while standing in an anteroom surrounded by friends. She was revived and led back to her cell in the county jail.

"There is no justice here," the convicted woman sobbed. "Those that are guilty are turned loose, and those that are innocent get the worst of it. I will show my innocence before I am through. It will only be a question of time. I did not kill my boy or any of the others. I am innocent, as God is my witness."

The Lindloff boy died June 15 last and the state charged that he was poisoned with arsenic. Mrs. Lindloff was arrested June 14 on suspicion of having poisoned two husbands and her three children.

The death of that girl grew the police investigation was that of Arthur Lindloff, 15 years old.

When she was arraigned in the Municipal Court June 17 charged with the murder of her son she was ordered held without bail, and by agreement of counsel the preliminary hearing was postponed until June 27 without the introduction of testimony. Meanwhile a chemical analysis of the dead boy's organs disclosed quantities of arsenic.

Examination of the bodies of William Lindloff, one of the woman's husbands, and Alma Lindloff, a daughter, was the next step, and on June 27 Professor Walter S. Haynes, who made the chemical analysis, reported that he had found arsenic in the internal organs of both. On June 29 came a dispatch from Milwaukee saying that arsenic had been found in the body of Julius Graunke, former husband of Mrs. Lindloff.

Police investigation proved that Arthur Lindloff's life had been heavily insured and her motive for the alleged killing was believed to have been established.

St. Anthony's church fair in East Oakland opened last evening on the final week of a successful two weeks' run, which ends Saturday, November 9, to one of the largest crowds which have so far attended the bazaar, being conducted in the interest of raising funds for St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum in San Rafael.

An announcement was made by the men and women in charge of the bazaar to the effect that $5000 have already been raised, and they expect to raise another thousand dollars before the final closing of the fair.

Eight elaborately decorated booths, displaying appropriate Christmas gifts, attracted hundreds of people, both old and young, who liberally patronized all of the concessions.

Among the women who are contributing largely to the success of the enterprise are: Agnes Lomas, Eileen Mahoney, Pauline Kertz, Lucille Dolan, Mary Sheehan and Josephine Van Hacht.

PROMINENT CANADIAN VICTIM OF OWN HAND

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 5.—Leaving letters of farewell to his landlady and to his son, Hon. Amos Robson, 82, of the local place, Winnipeg, Robert Robson, aged 70, an intimate friend and schoolmate of the late Sir John A. Macdonald, committed suicide in his apartment, 820 Drake street, late Sunday night. His body was found yesterday.

Robson was a wealthy man and a member of one of the most prominent families in Canada. His son, Hon. Hugh Amos Robson, was deputy attorney general of the Northwest Territories under Haultain, and was appointed to the king's bench, Manitoba, in 1910.

The police are of the opinion that Robson committed suicide as a result of a white powder resembling cyanide was found.

MRS. COLWELL BRIDE OF LIEUTENANT GLADE

RENO, Nov. 5.—Mrs. Lillian Huntington Colwell, a niece of Collis P. Huntington, who divorced Frederick Lewis Colwell, a New York stockbroker and clubman, here in January, 1910, whom she married at the St. Regis hotel in 1905, arrived here last night from the East accompanied by Lieutenant Herman Glade of West Point. They were married by Judge Davis and soon afterwards left for San Francisco to sail for Panama on a honeymoon trip. Having secured her divorce in Nevada, Mrs. Colwell insisted upon being remarried in this State. She was one of the most conspicuous women of the divorce colony.

Lieutenant Glade is said to be wealthy. He lavished costly diamonds upon his wife. She carried a collection of rare jewels, among them an Egyptian bracelet with a sapphire dating to 1500 B. C.

She is said to have divorced Colwell because he lost in a stock speculation more than $100,000 of her money.

What Cures Eczema?

We have had no small inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, D. D. Prescription, can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our extreme friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and as a matter of fact there are many recalled Eczema cures which we ourselves have persistently recommended D. ROMEO McDONALD.

Romeo McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. McDonald, of 1339 Fifteenth avenue, is coming up among the amateur ball tossers of West Oakland as a coming Ty Cobb. McDonald has appeared in a number of contests of the great national game and is considered one of the fastest amateur players of the lake. In addition to being "easy" "striker," the youngster is also famed when it comes to stealing bases. The young ball tosser, although but 17 years of age, has already played with a number of different major ball teams and has been objective in winning numbers of the contests in which he participated.

L. M. O.—The only thing I can suggest is to just leave your hair alone. The dye will gradually wear off, but of course the hair will not look very nice for awhile, for it will get very streaked. Shampoo it about every three weeks, using a good shampoo. If you care for it and will send me a stamped, addressed envelope I shall be glad to send you a formula for an excellent shampoo for the hair.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 5.—Pupils at the Lower Avenue school have a brand new "game." It is called nature study. Brown and white as the teachers explain the wonders of the plant and animal kingdoms.

An outdoor menagerie has given interest to the nature study class. From the tow-headed baby in the kindergarten to the baseball hero in the graduation class, all pupils are striving to contribute minute and startling specimens.

Already the outdoor zoo boasts of a collection containing rabbits, chickens, hilly quails, ducks and guinea pigs. The zoo, which was built by the boys of the school, is a three-story affair of chicken wire. The pupils are taught the care of the animals, from the feeding to the housing. The habits of the new inhabitants of the school yard are closely studied, and mornings and Sunday various pupils have entire charge over the pen.

The "live house" is a miniature zoo which is found in every room at the Lower Avenue school. Flavored toast, sardines, plain foods, roaches, caterpillars, SEATTLE, Nov. 5.—Principal Otto Luther of the Queen Anne High School yesterday frowned on all girls whose hostesses showed "loud" and variegated hues in celebration of "loud sock day," and sent them home to change their stockings. And the boys who showed loud plaids, rods, creams, violets and greens and blues above their shoes were ordered home ward to add their ankles with more subdued hues.

All the girls who had the audacity to compete with the boys in the loud sock contest were lined up by Professor Luther for inspection. He found his self-imposed task delicate. In some cases skirts bared the tops of rainy weather boots, and why could a male principal do? He just guesses in such cases.

Professor Luther made no exception, even in favor of plain white hose. He made the order general and all the girls went to their dressing-rooms or home to change.

At the time of the assembly there was a lecture by the principal for every body and a warning that "loud sock day" was over.

This is the case with the Normal school in the United States where a rural school has taken advantage of this law. It is so far as the normal school is concerned, we here know, the first school in the world to become affiliated with a state normal.

President Ware of the normal believes that this is the initial move for a higher education in the rural districts, the affiliation enabling the country to have the same standards in the equipment, methods, and living as the modern work of the normal and enable it to better prepare its pupils for the preliminary work of state teaching work and normal schools and other institutions of higher learning of the United States. The signing of the Chicago normal has undoubtedly a desire to follow the Phoenix Valley school in this matter.

SEARCH IN VAIN FOR DROWNED DUCK HUNTERS

CHANNEL BEING DRAGGED TO RECOVER THE BODIES

SIGHTS CRAFT BATTLING WAVES

Alameda Sees Supposed Boat Struggling in Vain Against High Seas.

Sister of One of the Dead Youths Identifies Wrecked Boat.

GEO. W. BAKER JR. (TOP) AND WALLACE ROSENBERG, WHO WERE DROWNED WHEN THEIR CANOE CAPSIZED.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 5.—Searchers are still dragging the deep channel off the south Alameda shore in an effort to recover the bodies of Wallace Rosenberg and George W. Baker Jr., who went to their deaths in the bay sometime last Sunday while on a hunting trip in a frail canvas canoe.

The last remnant of hope that the young men might still be alive was dissipated last night when Guido Depauli of 1917 Centennial avenue reported that he had found a wrecked canoe off the foot of Ninth street. The craft was later identified by Alois Pfallner and Miss Rosenberg, sister of one of the drowned youths, as the Rosenberg canoe in which the hunters left the south end of Sherman street at 5 o'clock Sunday morning for Bay Farm Island. Mute evidence of tragedy is given by the wrecked condition of the canoe and the broken mast still remaining in the craft. It is presumed that the canoe was capsized by the rough water prevailing in the channel Sunday. Tossed with hunting clothes, heavy boots, shotgun shells and other impediments the hunters had no chance to reach shore when thrown suddenly into the water.

THE HEAVY SEAS.
The craft was probably sighted Sunday morning about 11 o'clock by young Depauli's father, who saw a canoe out in the channel, a mile from shore, fighting desperately with the rough water. Depauli remarked it was too rough in the channel for such a small boat. The elder Depauli did not see any signs of distress, or witness the boat's capsizing, but feels sure it was the ill-starred canvas craft he saw being tossed about like an eggshell on the foaming waves.

Young Baker was the son of Professor George W. Baker Sr., head of the mathematics department in the San Jose Normal school. He came to Alameda last spring and lived with the H. M. Crosby family at 1030 Fair Oaks avenue. He was regarded by Mr. and Mrs. Crosby as a member of the family. Filled with enthusiasm over the anticipated joys of the duck hunt which he and young Rosenberg had planned weeks ago, Baker looked at his watch Saturday night while in the Crosby home and said boyishly to Mrs. Crosby: "This time tomorrow I'll be slaying the ducks."

Twelve hours later he was waging unsuccessful battle for his life in the deep water in the channel.

Baker is survived by his parents, four sisters and two brothers. Two of his sisters teach in the Fresno schools. He was 24 years of age and had lived most of his life in San Jose. He was Oakland area manager for the Royal Typewriter company. He was a graduate of Stanford university and was a young man of promise and fine character.

Rosenberg was 10 years old. He formerly attended the Alameda high school, taking the commercial course. He then entered the employ of the Bank of British North America, where he worked until recently. He was a well known Alameda youth and highly respected by the many persons who knew him, and was especially esteemed by his former friends in the Alameda schools. He is survived by his parents and a sister, Miss Helen Rosenberg.

The search for the bodies will be maintained each day until it is too late to hope for their recovery.

NEW HERO OF OCEAN IS MODEST

Brave Wireless Operator on the Dodge of Notoriety and Honor.

Sticks to Post on Stricken Vessel During Great Storm.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 5.—Another hero of the sea was born, it developed today, when the Norwegian steamer Noreuga and the Norwegian sailing ship Glenluie met in disastrous collision at sea last Friday. The Noreuga arrived last night in a sinking condition in tow of the revenue cutter Onondaga and is preparing to dock. The Glenluie is expected later in the day, when it also will be docked.

The man to whom credit is given is the wireless operator on the Noreuga, who declined to give his name and whose desire to avoid notoriety was respected by Captain Hansen. When the crew was deserting the stricken vessel the operator refused to leave his post, and, with death riding the gale, continued to flash his appeals for help. He finally succeeded in raising both shore stations and vessels of the Atlantic fleet. The rescue of the vessel's crew was accomplished as they were about to founder.

Governor Marshall Votes Ticket Straight

'LIKE BOY OUT OF SCHOOL,' IS WILSON

Democratic Candidate Admits Campaign Has Been Hard.

Casts Vote Amid Bombardment of Good Wishes and Pleasantries.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 5.—Governor Woodrow Wilson was asked how he felt today.

"Like a boy out of school," he replied with a sigh of relief, for he admitted that the campaign had been a hard physical strain. His scalp wound, received in the motor car mishap two days ago, did not bother him, he said.

Most of the day the Governor planned to spend in answering letters. Tonight a small party will be at the Wilson home to hear the return in a private telegraph wire. Governor Wilson had planned to get to bed early but the students of Princeton University intend to have a noisy parade to the governor's house if the trend of election results show his way.

Governor Wilson voted the straight Democratic ticket at 10:15 o'clock in the interior of an engine house. He was in the voting booth four minutes and remarked as he came out that the ballot was so big he "had a hard time finding the Democratic presidential picture."

On the way to the voting booth, Governor Wilson stopped abruptly in front of a little frame house.

"When I was a freshman in college," he said, "I used to eat in that house. One night I got a fishbone in my throat and jumped off that piazza six times in an effort to jolt it out, but it would not jolt."

WOULD ENFORCE LAW.
When the nominee arrived at the polling booth he was greeted by a group of photographers and spectators. A half dozen photographers had perched their cameras in the interior of the little engine house.

"I'll enforce the law, if you like, and have these men put out; I'm Governor, you know," the nominee said, laughingly, to the tellers, but they were enjoying the scene too much to be literal.

The Governor had to wait a few minutes before one of three polling places were vacant. Norman Armour, Princeton, 1871, was in one of the booths.

"Governor," he said, "when I was in New York I saw a banner headed 'Wilson National Progressive Republican Ticket.' That is the ticket I voted."

"I feel very much complimented," answered the Governor. "You know I have always wondered at those banners that said 'Republican Progressive Nominations.' I had always thought the Progressive nominations were irregular."

FORGETS HIS BALLOT.
The crowd laughed and the Governor entered the voting booth. He thought the ballots were inside.

"You'll have to have one of these first," he called to the tellers, all of whom were old-time friends of the Governor, and the nominee was handed his ballot.

"Woodrow Wilson, No. 9, Cleveland Lane, ballot 112," announced one of the tellers, as he recorded the Governor's vote.

The Governor was in the booth just four minutes. As he came out he spoke of his difficulty in finding the Democratic presidential electors.

"They are buried down at the bottom of the sheet somewhere," he said indignantly.

Out of a total of 236 registered in the Governor's precinct, almost half had voted by 11 o'clock.

FUGITIVE WILL RETAIN HIS FREEDOM

JACK BLACK CANNOT BE BROUGHT BACK TO STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 5.—Jack Black cannot be brought back to California from Canada to be required to serve a term in San Quentin for assault to commit robbery. The application of the state of California for Black's extradition was denied yesterday by the department of state at Washington on the ground that the treaty between the United States and Canada does not mention convicted men and jailbreakers as among those who may be extradited.

Black escaped from the San Francisco county jail last January by sawing his way through the prison bars. The San Francisco authorities applied to the governor's office for a requisition and the governor's office in turn sent a message to the state department.

CARDINAL FARLEY VISITS OAKLAND CITY SISTERS ARE BLESSED BY HIS EMINENCE

CARDINAL JOHN FARLEY, WHO HAS BEEN TODAY GUEST AT ST. MARY'S AND THE HOLY NAME COLLEGES.

Students of St. Mary's and College of Holy Names Hear Addresses of Distinguished Prelate

The first visit of His Eminence, Cardinal John Farley, to Oakland since his appointment to the College of Cardinals, was a momentous occasion to the 300 students of St. Mary's College and the students and sisters at the College of the Holy Names this morning.

An informal reception at St. Mary's College was held in the gymnasium at which Cardinal Farley replied to an introduction by Brother Fabrice, president of the college, and an address of welcome by Richard J. Curley, a senior student in the department of arts.

His Eminence told the student body to live up to the high ideals of manhood which the Christian Brothers constantly held before them as a duty at length on the glorious careers that had resulted from those teachings in the past. After the address he blessed the gathering with the papal benediction. The college orchestra rendered selections and the singing and leaving of the party in which were Archbishop P. W. Horgan and two other bishops from the West, were signals for a round of applause from the students.

Providence hospital was the next institution visited and there the party stopped long enough to render the papal blessing to the sisters who were gathered at the entrance. It was the request of Cardinal Farley that the different recitations be as informal as possible owing to the shortness of his visit, and at the College of Holy Names, Broadway and Webster street, where the sisters had prepared luncheon for the distinguished guests, the exercises were curtailed.

The auditorium of the college and convent was decorated in red in keeping with the rank of the Cardinal, and red streamers ran from the stage on which a portion of the students were seated. His Eminence was escorted to the throne at the left of the stage as the Pontifical Mass was placed, and seated with the Archbishop at his right. The other prelates were seated at the right according to their rank.

The greeting chorus, "Vivint Pastor Bonum," was sung by the girl students and the address of welcome given by Miss Alice Clair Smith, which was responded to by Cardinal Farley. Mother Symphora, provincial sister and council, and Father McSherry and Keene, escorted the party to the chapel, where short prayers were heard and the blessing given. Luncheon was then served the visitors by the sisters.

The students from St. Joseph's Academy at Portola Park, in Berkeley, marched to St. Mary's College and joined with the students there in the welcome to Cardinal Farley.

Smuggling Yacht To Be Sold by U. S.

Starlight Ordered Confiscated by Federal Court Judge.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 5.—The Starlight, a smuggling craft of many exciting adventures and said by many to be the swiftest on the Southern California coast, has been confiscated by an order of Judge Olin Walborn of the United States Court.

According to the judge's order, on file today, the Starlight will be sold by United States Marshal Lee V. Youngworth. The launch was captured several months ago at San Clemente island after it had been chased through southern waters by federal immigration officers, who believed the craft had been engaged in bringing contraband Chinese into the United States from Mexican ports.

Objects to Barter Of Babies In South

Los Angeles Health Officer Would Amend Adoption Laws.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 5.—"Babies in Los Angeles are being given away, or bought and sold like so many puppy dogs," declared Dr. L. M. Powers, city health officer today, who said new laws regulating the adoption of children are badly needed. He said that many babies are taken for adoption by people who do not leave their correct identity with the health officials, and of whom we can find no trace.

"A few babies, of course, find good homes, but there are a great many whose fate is entirely different."

COLONEL HAS QUIET DAY AT HOME

Roosevelt Votes in Fire House; His Ballot Is Number 265.

Pays His Respects and Makes Promise to Senator Root.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Nov. 5.—The only sign of election day at Sagamore Hill was the presence of a man, who ran a telegraph wire to a large room on the second floor of Colonel Roosevelt's house to bring in the returns tonight.

Colonel Roosevelt passed the day as though it was any other. He sent for his secretary and as soon as he had finished breakfast was in his study at work on his correspondence.

Colonel Roosevelt arrived at the polling place, in a fire truck house at 12:05 o'clock this afternoon and a few minutes later had cast his ballot. Seven neighbors accompanied him and he waited twenty minutes until each of them had voted before returning to Sagamore Hill.

While in the polling place a flashlight was taken as Colonel Roosevelt dropped his ballot in the box and the crowd cheered.

A crowd of villagers waited for an hour in front of the truck house for Colonel Roosevelt. As his automobile rounded the corner, the people set up a cheer.

WAVES TO CROWD.
The Colonel doffed the brown army hat which he wears when he is at home and waved acknowledgment. With him were James A. Moss, his butler; Ralph Amos, another house servant, and Charles Lee, the coachman, all negroes. Arthur Merriam, his chauffeur, and Howard Browne, William Bailey and William Carl, farm hands. Two detectives, guarding Colonel Roosevelt, completed the party.

Theodore Roosevelt, ballot No. 265, called out the clerk, as the Colonel entered a booth. He remained there for five minutes, then came out and deposited his ballot in the box. Then he went outside and sat in his motor car. He waited for a quarter of an hour until the others from Sagamore Hill had voted.

HAS QUIET DAY.
"I am having a quiet day," said the Colonel. "This afternoon Mrs. Roosevelt and I are going to take a walk."

The Colonel said that he would go to his editorial office in New York on Thursday or Friday.

"I think I climbed Senator Root last night," said Colonel Roosevelt, referring to his attack on Senator Root and John G. Millburn, Louis Marshall and William D. Guthrie, New York lawyers, in his speech in Oyster Bay last night. "I'm not through with these gentlemen either, whatever the outcome of the election may be."

"I wished they had made their statement about me thirty days ago. If they had done so, I would have hammered them and their supporters out of the ring."

AFTER MORE MEMBERS.
GERKELEY, Nov. 5.—A membership campaign is to be opened by the Berkeley Y. M. C. A. next Saturday to continue for one month. The effort will be made to double the present membership of 1000.

The committee in charge of the campaign includes Elmer Cole, U. S. Post Office Inspector, Frank Talbot, Ralph T. Wootton, Nelson Schuchter, E. Perry, Gray Hancum and F. Bullock.

ACCUSED EMBEZZLER IS SILENT ON OWN CASE

Wallace I. Poland Refuses to Say Word in His Own Defense

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—The International Harvester Company, which has acquired so frequently in the past, has again been thrown upon the scene of public affairs as the result of the arrest of a United States marshal, Wallace I. Poland, whose apprehension was chronicled yesterday. Poland stands charged with the embezzlement of $84,000 spent not in various living, but on investments for making comfort for his family and embezzling as a "lawyer" and "business" in this city and in other parts of California.

This morning Poland, willingly came forth from his cell at the city prison to greet a newspaper man who called upon him, but absolutely declined to say anything or to defend himself against the charges lodged at his door.

"I appreciate the fact that you want the news, and I also know that you want to give me a square deal," he explained, "but I really must not say anything. I am advised not to talk and I know you will observe me."

CONFESION REPORTED.

Poland's face disclosed the fact that he had spent a night of worry. He was taken into custody by the city police from the William J. Burns company and turned over to Detective Sergeant MacPherson of the local force late in the afternoon. Judge K. M. Greene, counsel for the International Harvester company, declares that Poland has confessed and that he admitted his guilt when he was caught in the act of passing a check for $1500 belonging to his employer. Greene says that he admits taking $84,000 between the summer of 1911 and the beginning of last month.

Poland is said to have spent the money in providing luxuries for his wife and family, in purchasing a saloon here and in creating a chain of moving picture theaters in this city and in Modesto. He had big promotion schemes and it is said he hoped in time to make a trust out of the moving picture business, thus rolling up a fortune for himself and paying back the money "borrowed" from his corporation.

It is said also that he spent some little of the cash at the Villa Mateo, a gambling resort just across the county line, where he achieved a fondness for roulette wheel and other games.

For three weeks prior to his arrest he had been followed by detectives and even entertained them, it is said, on one occasion at his home, 1504 Hyde street, not knowing who they were.

HELD FOR $50,000.

Audrey Ambrose, traveling auditor for the Harvester Company, swore to the complaint against the accused man and was paid $50,000 in cash and $50,000 in bonds. Despite the pleadings of his wife that he be given another chance and allowed to pay the money back as best he could.

Judge Green, in speaking of Poland's arrest, said:

"It is a case of a young man possessed of good business attainments and occupying a position of trust, who, with a desire apparently to become a moving picture magnate of the Pacific coast, has misappropriated funds of his employer."

"Poland has been charged with the International Harvester Company of America, at its branch office in this city, for several years and possessed the implicit confidence of the company."

"Upon the arrival of the company's auditor in this city about the first of October, a shortage was discovered in the company's funds, and such shortage has been admitted by Poland to be true."

IN DAILY CONFERENCE.

The company's representatives have been in daily conference with Poland to ascertain what disposition has been made of the money and to endeavor to save what we could out of the various enterprises in which he has been engaged. It has been found that a large portion of this money has been invested by Poland in moving picture theaters, a saloon and in options on property intended to be taken over for theatrical purposes.

"Unlike so many similar cases, there is no evidence of the money having been spent in riotous living; he has admitted having lost money at roulette in July last at Villa Mateo, which is said to be a gambling place, and which the public supposed had been closed for the last two years. Poland has lived extravagantly and has been generous in gifts to members of his family, but generally it appears to be a case of endeavoring to attain sudden riches."

"The company will not specially prosecute Poland, but has placed the matter before the district attorney for his advice and action."

30 OAKLAND BOYS ATTEND CONFERENCE

Thirty boys of the Oakland Y. M. C. A. returned yesterday from Watsonville, where they attended the annual boys' conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of the northern section of California. The convention was held November 1, 2 and 3, on the conference theme, "The Strength of Ten." The Oakland association had the largest delegation at the meeting, of which 150 members were present. Dr. J. W. Henson of Oakland was president of the conference.

VESEL FINED $5000.

ASTORIA, Ore., Nov. 5.—A fine of $5000 has been imposed by Collector of Customs McGregor on the German bark Egon, lying in the lower harbor ready to depart for Seattle and back with a cargo of grain. The fine was for failure to bring a consular bill of health when the vessel arrived from Yokohama, Japan, on October 2.

A Wonderful Tonic That Aids Digestion

Thousands are unable to digest certain kinds of food. In most cases it is not the fault of the food, nor the stomach. It is probable that the stomach has been abused. It is possible to get relief from dyspepsia, indigestion and heartburn, but without permanent benefit. If your stomach is in perfect condition, the food you eat, nature's tonic, will be a stomach regulator. It gets the stomach in such a condition that it will digest food without other assistance. It overcomes the acidity and stimulates the coating of the stomach, and it induces the proper absorption and assimilation of the nutriment from the food eaten. Sufferers from dyspepsia, indigestion and heartburn, get relief from this tonic. Beginning the use of the tonic, for children, the addition of a little sugar will make it most palatable.

Many forms of intestinal parasites, for which J. C. Tonic is a powerful remedy, are removed from the system. J. C. Tonic is a powerful remedy for all forms of intestinal parasites, for which J. C. Tonic is a powerful remedy. J. C. Tonic is a powerful remedy for all forms of intestinal parasites, for which J. C. Tonic is a powerful remedy.

CLUB WOMEN TO MEET AT EBELL

Annual Convention of Alameda District to Be Held in February.

The Alameda district of the California Federation of Women's Clubs has accepted the invitation of Ebelle to hold the annual convention in its Harrison-street clubhouse next spring. The board of directors, of which Mrs. John C. Lynch of Berkeley is president, has fixed the date of meeting for Tuesday, February 18, continuing three days, with adjournment Thursday evening, February 20.

The convention will open with a dinner at the clubhouse, followed by a new feature in the history of the local club program. The presidents of the various organizations making up the Alameda district will present their annual reports following the dinner.

Plans for the three-days' program have not yet been obtained fully, but aside from the routine which usually occupies the attention of the clubs and their reports, several important questions of current interest will be discussed by prominent speakers.

The coming convention was the issue before the district board meeting at Ebelle clubhouse, at which Mrs. Lynch presided as chairman. The officers, district chairmen and members of the local clubs had a part in the discussion. Mrs. J. W. Orr, president of the California federation; Mrs. A. L. Barry, past district president; and Mrs. C. R. Jones, auditor of the State board, were the honored guests who were asked to advise with the board. Those who were present were:

Mrs. Lynch, district president; Mrs. George Colby, district secretary; Mrs. R. S. Holway, chairman of art; Miss M. Shuey, chairman of health; Mrs. J. Reel, chairman of forestry; Mrs. E. R. Egan, chairman of music; Mrs. J. N. Frank, president of Alta Mira Club; Mrs. F. D. Weeks, district vice-president; Mrs. H. J. Allen, president of Draper Club, Berkeley; Mrs. L. G. Leonard, chairman of home economics; Mrs. Thomas Egan, chairman of civics; Mrs. L. F. Crute, chairman of philanthropy; Mrs. George Louderback, chairman of education; Dr. Minora Kibbe, chairman of civil service reform.

WILL ENDEAVOR TO INDICT BLACK

Escape Wanted for Felonious Assault Will Have to Be Charged Anew.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—When the grand jury meets tomorrow night the District Attorney will endeavor to obtain an indictment against John Black, alias Callahan, captured recently in Canada and wanted here for escaping from the county jail in January of this year. Black was under sentence of 25 years for assault with intent to commit robbery, with prior conviction. Acting Secretary of State Alvey A. Adee telegraphed Acting Governor Wallace that the crime of assault with intent to commit robbery was not an extraditable offense and that reason will be necessary to place a new charge against the accused in order that he may be returned here and sent to the penitentiary. The grand jury, it is expected, will return a true bill charging him with jail breaking.

OAKLANDER PUTS BULLET IN HEAD

Percy Zent Found Dying on the Marshes Near Alvarado.

Discharged from his job at Alvarado marshes, an Oakland man, Percy Zent, who resided at the Brooklyn House, East Twelfth street and Twenty-second avenue, "celebrated" on a "joy night." Then going back to the scene of his former labors in the marsh he shot himself through the head.

Zent was discovered last night on the marsh by John Reed, a San Francisco man. By his side lay a gun and there was a bullet wound in his head. He was still alive when he was taken to the hospital, but he died before he could be taken to the hospital.

He died at 2 o'clock this morning. Zent, who was about 35 years of age, was single and had started at the Brooklyn House as a cook.

NEEDS $200 TO SECURE HUSBAND

Woman Offers to Make Sacrifice in Order to Be Married.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—A woman of Indianapolis, in order that she might wed the man who is waiting for her, volunteered in a letter to a local newspaper, yesterday, to give her skin to save the life of Mrs. Sigurd Benson, burned in an explosion here a year ago.

The proposition was made on condition that no effort be made to find out her name; that not enough skin be taken to endanger her life, and that some of the generous men of Chicago pay her $200 for her waste of time and the pain caused by the operation.

The woman says her two reasons for making the offer are that she has been through the bitter experience of mother loneliness and that the $200 will enable her to pay her debts and marry the man of her choice.

FEDERATED WOMEN'S CLUB TO CONVENE

SANTA CRUZ, Cal., Nov. 5.—Arrangements were completed yesterday by the Saturday Afternoon and Shakespeare Clubs for the convention of the Federated Women's Clubs of San Francisco and near-by cities, which begins Wednesday morning at the Casino here. The majority of the delegates will arrive here tonight. The delegates will hear the election returns at the convention hall. An illustrated lecture will be given Mrs. E. C. Green of Palo Alto, her subject being "From the Water Jar of the Orient to the Canal of the Occident."

NIGHT PROWLER ROBS SLEEPER IN HOTEL

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—A night prowler, who invaded the corridors of the Argonaut hotel early this morning, raided the apartment of Ross B. Adams, a merchant of Santa Rosa, and stole a gold watch and $30. Adams was asleep, the robber as he closed the door. He discovered immediately that his trousers were missing and rushed out in the hallway. The thief had disappeared.

HUNT HEARTLESS AUTO.

SAN JOSE, Nov. 5.—Sheriff Lafford is searching for the driver of the automobile which ran into a wagon in front of Hotel Vandema Saturday afternoon and threw Charles Lamphkin, a delivery boy, to the pavement, fracturing his arm. The car was wrecked and the driver of the machine, refusing to take the injured lad to his home in South Tenth street, drove rapidly away. The boys here he could identify any of the three men in the car.

REV. RICARD FINDS NEW LIGHT ON SUN

SANTA CLARA, Nov. 5.—While examining the sun at the observatory of the Santa Clara University at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Rev. J. Ricard and Doctor Porta saw a brilliant facula in helio latitude 80 degrees north and longitude 68 2-3 degrees east from central meridian.

The facula looks like a Tungsten lamp on the sun. It is a white spot of rare beauty. Probably, they call it a "disturbance."

Seen in that high latitude, it is a most extraordinary event, throwing the spotlight to the text-books. Its diameter measures 6002 miles and its apparent area 20,166 square miles.

VERITABLE LANDSLIDE SWEEPS WOODROW WILSON INTO OFFICE WITH 415 ELECTORAL VOTES TO CREDIT

New York Goes Democratic in Every Branch of Government; Roosevelt's Expected Plurality in Illinois Dwindles

and Roosevelt's 108,000. There remain 1687 down State precincts to report.

Judge Dunn, Democratic, gubernatorial candidate, was easily conceded a plurality of 53,000. The vote from 1909 precincts gave Dunn 212,261, Funk (Prog.) 111,622 and Deane (Rep.) 137,612.

DEMOCRATS SWEEP IN.

Dunn led both in Cook county and down State. The entire Democratic State ticket was swept in office. Nine hundred and forty-five precincts out of 1498 in Cook county gave: Stringer and Williams (Dems.) 88,276 and 82,391. Maxey and Davis (P.) 61,707 and 64,370. Mason and Ciphend (Rs.) 61,269 and 55,561.

Two Socialists were elected to the legislature. Progressives and Socialists hold the balance of power in the legislature on joint ballot.

Nine Progressives, 37 Democrats and 96 Republicans were elected. There are 204 members, with 103 necessary for a quorum in the selection of two United States Senators.

Governor Deane, it was announced, was considering calling an extra session of the legislature to fill the Lorimer vacancy.

Idaho

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 6.—President Taft is practically assured of the electoral vote of Idaho. Thousands of voters wrote in the names of the Roosevelt electors, which were buried from the ballot by a supreme court decision.

The race for governor between John H. Haines, Republican, and Governor James H. Hawley, Democrat, and Martin, Progressive, is very close, with Haines in the lead. The legislature is safely Republican, as during the election of two Republican United States senators.

Montana

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 6.—Returns from 180 scattered precincts, comprising about one-fourth of the total vote, give Wilson 11,230, Taft 6940, Roosevelt 6634.

Walsh, Democrat, for United States senator has 9443, and Smith, Republican, 7374. Stout and Evans, Democrats, for congress are running well up to the Walsh vote.

Rhode Island

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 6.—Revised and complete returns from Rhode Island give the following result: Roosevelt 16,483, Taft 27,755, Wilson 30,299, Chaffin 595.

New York Goes Into Democratic Camp

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—New York state went Democratic in practically every branch of its government. Representative Sulzer was elected governor by a plurality of 59,926 for Wilson over the nearest opponent, John H. Hughes, Republican. The legislature will probably be strongly Democratic in both branches.

Sulzer received a plurality, not only in the Democratic strongholds of New York city, but also in the up-state districts. The totals in New York city were, Sulzer 303,741; Strauss 192,572; Hughes 111,850. Sulzer's activity in urging abrogation of the treaty with Russia for discrimination against passports presented by American Hebrews, helped to split the Jewish vote that would otherwise have largely gone to Strauss, the Progressive nominee.

Indiana

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 6.—Returns from 1976 of the 3172 precincts in Indiana give Wilson 189,001; Taft 99,321, Roosevelt 109,085, a plurality of 59,926 for Wilson over Roosevelt in two-thirds of the state.

Former Senator Beveridge, Progressive, was 60,000 behind Ralston, Democrat, for governor and ahead of Durbin, Republican.

Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 6.—Practically complete returns from all sections indicate that Wilson carried the state by 50,000, the normal Democratic vote. The entire Democratic congressional ticket was elected.

Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—A plurality of more than 23,000 for Roosevelt in Pennsylvania was indicated by additional returns today. Philadelphia gave Taft 12,000 plurality, with Roosevelt running second, 14,000 ahead of Wilson. Wilson ran second in the state outside of Philadelphia. Congress, Nineteenth district—Lynn Brua (Washington party), Progressive, elected.

Kentucky

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 6.—Roosevelt ran third in Kentucky according to returns nearly complete today. Wilson apparently had a lead of more than 100,000 over Taft. The vote: Wilson 194,934, Taft 91,450, Roosevelt 89,576.

Ohio

CINCINNATI, Nov. 6.—All of Ohio's twenty-four electoral votes, all of the important state offices, the state legislature and all but two or three of its representatives in the House of Representatives went into the Democratic column. Returns from 2300 precincts gave Wilson 176,522, Taft 121,520, Roosevelt 85,200.

and indicate that Wilson carried the state by 100,000.

President Taft carried his home city by a safe majority.

Nicholas Longworth, son-in-law of former President Roosevelt, was elected to congress from the First Ohio district.

Kansas

TOPEKA, Kans., Nov. 6.—Roosevelt's lead in Kansas as indicated last night was greatly reduced by returns received up to 10:30 this morning. Returns from 425 precincts complete and 100 incomplete out of 2300 give Roosevelt 25,206, Wilson 24,531, Taft 14,445. Stubbs, Republican, for United States senator, 12,593; Thompson, Democrat, 9920; Capper, Republican, for governor, 11,621, against Hughes, Democrat, 8438.

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 6.—Progressive leaders here today claimed Kansas for Roosevelt by 8000, while Wilson supporters asserted that late returns from remote counties, which may not all be in till tomorrow, will wipe out Roosevelt's lead. Returns from 181 of the 2300 precincts give Roosevelt a plurality of 1400.

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 6.—The constitutional amendment giving women full suffrage was carried in Kansas by a majority of 50,000, according to scattering returns received up to an early hour this afternoon.

Republican State Chairman Dolley said at noon that the reduction of Roosevelt's lead was only temporary and that the rural returns would increase it to from 10,000 to 13,000. He claimed the state for Stubbs and Capper by 20,000 and the remainder of the state ticket by close to 30,000. Secretary Martin of the Democratic state committee claimed the state for Wilson by 15,000 and for Thompson and Hughes by an equal amount. The result may not be known today because of the slow count.

Wisconsin

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 6.—Congressman Victor L. Berger of Milwaukee, the only Socialist in Congress, was defeated for re-election by former Congressman William H. Stafford, who ran as a fusion candidate on the Democratic ticket.

The entire Socialist ticket in Milwaukee went down in defeat before the non-partisan coalition of Democrats and Republicans, with the possible exception of Winifred C. Zebel, present district attorney.

Congressman John J. Edek, Seventh district; Irvine L. Lenroot, Eleventh district, have been re-elected. Stewart, Dem., is finishing neck and neck with Congressman J. A. Cooper, Rep., in the First district.

Congressman Konop, Dem., and Representative Morse, Rep., each claim election in the Ninth district.

Iowa

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 6.—Almost complete returns from twenty-three counties out of a including estimates for thirty-eight precincts in these counties give: Taft 23,747, Wilson 35,487, Roosevelt 36,175. E. G. Dunn, Dem., basing his claim on reports gathered by 10 o'clock, declared he had been elected Governor of Iowa over Clarke, Rep., by from 5000 to 10,000 majority.

Nevada

RENO, Nev., Nov. 6.—Incomplete returns from five counties out of fifteen in the state indicate Wilson has carried the state by about 5000 majority.

W. A. Massey, Republican, is leading by 500 votes for United States Senator, and E. E. Roberts, Republican, has a slight lead in the Congressional race. Complete returns will not be available until late tomorrow.

West Virginia

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 6.—Wilson's plurality was estimated today at 30,000, with Taft and Roosevelt separated by only a few hundred votes. Hatfield, Republican, for governor appeared to have been elected over Thompson by about 15,000.

Nebraska

OMAHA, Nov. 6.—The Omaha Bee (Republican) concedes Wilson's plurality in the state to be 30,000. Roosevelt is running second. Democratic managers claim the election of Morehead for governor by 20,000. Congress, First district—John A. McGuire, Democrat, re-elected.

Colorado

DENVER, Nov. 6.—Seventeen precincts out of 182 in Denver complete give Wilson 2243, Roosevelt 1590, Taft 643. DENVER, Nov. 6.—Complete returns from 195 precincts out of 1412, including fifty-seven in Denver, give: Wilson 18,680, Taft 8641, Roosevelt 10,428. Ammons (Dem.) leads for Governor.

Texas

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 6.—Wilson's majority in Texas will be approximately 150,000. The combined vote of Taft and Roosevelt was about 5000, considerably less than Taft's vote in 1908. All Democratic congressmen and state officers were elected and all but one member of the legislature. The Socialist vote was between 5000 and 10,000.

New Hampshire

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 6.—Governor Wilson increased his lead to 1570 when returns were received from 270 of the 290 districts. The state totals gave Wilson 30,412, Taft 28,843, Roosevelt 15,475.

Florida

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 6.—Indications are that a light vote was polled in Florida. Wilson will carry the state by about 28,000.

Michigan

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 6.—One-fifth of the Michigan precincts outside of Wayne county gave Roosevelt 93,331, Wilson 44,912, Taft 43,758. Ferris, Democrat, led for governor by 3200. Legislative returns were too incomplete to warrant a prediction as to United States senator.

Washington

SEATTLE, Nov. 6.—Returns received today do not change the relative positions of Roosevelt and Ernest Lister, Democratic candidate for governor, in the state senate competition, and interest has now shifted to the five congressional seats.

The Progressive candidate-at-large, State Senator J. A. Falconer, of Everett, and City Attorney J. W. Bryan of Bremerton maintain their lead and are probably elected.

The Progressive ticket will be Humphrey in 108 of the 393 precincts of King county has a plurality of 469 over Hefner, Democrat, and 485 over London, Progressive. If Humphrey does as well in the remainder of King county he will have a small plurality which might be swept away by any one of the three big Progressive counties of Whatcom, Snohomish and Kitsap. Hence, the odds favor State Senator Dan London.

No adequate returns have been received from the Second and Third districts.

Seattle

SEATTLE, Nov. 6.—Four hundred and fifty-four precincts out of 1908 in the state of Washington give Roosevelt 25,772, Wilson 19,272, Taft 15,442.

Three hundred and sixteen precincts give for Governor: Lister (Dem.), 12,832; Hav (Rep.), 10,508; Hodge (Progressive), 8635.

Two hundred and thirteen precincts give for Congressman-at-large: Falconer (Progressive), 7432; Frost (Rep.), 6239; Dewey (Rep.), 6240; Connor (Dem.), 5990; White (Dem.), 5363.

Four hundred and ninety-nine precincts out of 1903 in the state of Washington give: Roosevelt 28,102, Wilson 21,107, Taft 16,988.

For governor 261 precincts give Lister, Democrat, 15,493; Hav, Republican, 12,723; Hodge, Progressive, 10,104.

For representative-at-large 286 precincts give Falconer, Progressive, 9190; Bryan, Progressive, 8921; Dewey, Republican 8255; Frost, Republican, 8205; Connor, Democrat, 6007; White, Democrat, 5799.

Oregon

PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 6.—Woodrow Wilson first, Roosevelt second and Taft third is the story the returns tell up to 8 o'clock this morning. The United States senatorship is any man's contest, with less than 200 votes separating the candidates.

You cannot afford to do without it. 1/2 glass before breakfast clears the head and tones up the whole system.

OAKLAND

DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY IN HOUSE IS HEAVY

Bourbons Have 267 Votes In Congress; Republicans 99

House of Representatives—Democrats, 267; Republicans, 99; Progressives, 7; districts unreported, 62. Total members, 436.

The foregoing showed the standing at noon today of the House of Representatives in the Sixty-third (new) Congress. The total of 267 gave the Democrats 49 more than 218 necessary for a majority and 37 more than the Democratic membership in the Sixty-second Congress.

Massachusetts—First district, Allen T. Treadway (Rep.) elected; Second, Gillette (Rep.), re-elected; Third, Bristow (Dem.), elected; Ninth, Roberts (Rep.), re-elected.

Massachusetts

BOSTON, Nov. 6.—The total vote of Massachusetts for President was: Wilson 170,995, Taft 152,255, Roosevelt 110,152.

For Governor: Foss (Dem.), 192,978; Walker (Rep.), 143,628; Bird (Progressive), 124,258.

North Carolina

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Nov. 6.—North Carolina gave a majority of more than 50,000 to Wilson and Marshall, Locke Craig, Democrat, was elected governor.

South Carolina

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 6.—Wilson's majority in this state is estimated at between 50,000 and 60,000, while there was practically no opposition to the Democratic nominees for state offices. The Democratic congressional delegation was re-elected.

Oklahoma

The race for Congress in the Sixth district between Carney, D., and Morgan, R., is very close.

FIRST EXPOSITION BUILDING RUSHED

The Service Structure Will Be Occupied on January 1st, Is News.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—Rapid progress is being made on the service building at the first of the structures of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. It is located on a lot west of Fillmore street, a block north of Chestnut. It is expected that it will be completed by the first of the year. It will be a three-story building and will cost $35,000.

In the service building will be housed the police and emergency hospital services of the exposition together with the treasurer's department, which will be provided with first-class walls. The architect's department will have its quarters on the second floor and on the third floor will be located the blue printing photographic and color process plants.

Dr. Frederick J. N. Skiff, director in chief of the exposition and James A. Barr, manager of construction, were visited yesterday by C. O. Mailoux of New York who called to discuss the proposed international electric congress of 1915. He will return east shortly and will proceed to Europe to attend the congress. Plans are being made to participate in the congress.

Among the foreign societies to which invitations will be extended are the British Association for the Advancement of Science, the Institution of Electric Engineers, the Society of Chemical Engineers, Verband Deutscher Ingenieure, Associazione Elettrotecnica Italiana, Societa des Ingegneri Civili.

An address relating to the exposition will be delivered tomorrow evening by Charles A. Vogelsang before the Sunset Improvement Club, Upper Sunset Club, Central Improvement Association, and Parkside Improvement Association in the Laguna Honda school building, Seventh avenue and Ninth street.

At a meeting last night in Sequoia Club hall, 17.6 Washington street, the Pennsylvania Society of California unanimously adopted a resolution introduced by Vogelsang authorizing a special petition to be sent to the Pennsylvania authorities asking that the famous "Liberty Bell" be sent to this city for the exposition.

Accused Embezzler Refuses to Shift His Attitude in the Case.
SANTA FE, Nov. 6.—Wallace A. Poland, who stands charged, specifically, with the misappropriation of $1500 of the funds of the International Harvester Company of America, but whose alleged stealing is said to reach $34,000, appeared in Police Judge Weller's court this morning. Neatly groomed, with a smile for the friends who greeted him and with an air of composure seldom noted in the demeanor of defendants of this character, Poland made a favorable impression.

He declared that he had not changed his attitude and refused to make any statement for publication as to the charges against him. His counsel, Attorney Henry M. Owens, conferred with him for a few moments but at the request of the prosecution the case was put over for one week.

BABE BRINGS LIGHT INTO DINGY COURT
Climbs on Shoulder of Father, Who Is Accused of Burglary.
SANTA FE, Nov. 6.—When David Bolster appeared in Superior Judge Dunne's court this morning, he was charged with burglary. His young wife and 18-month-old baby daughter approached the dock to greet him. While the woman clung to her husband, striving to cheer him and to assure him of her faith and help, the little youngster climbed over the railing, made her way unnoticed among the prisoners, and begged one of them to lift her upon her father's shoulder.

Before either of the sorrowing couple were aware of what had occurred the child had perched herself on her father's shoulder. The spectacle was a pathetic one and the scene drew to a close as the judge entered and the court was called to order. Bolster's case was continued until November 21.

COLLISION CALLS FIRE DEPARTMENT
Reckless Automobilist Runs Into Alarm Box, Summoning Three Engines.
Members of the fire department were given unusual for exercise in the rainy hours of this morning, when a reckless automobilist collided with the alarm box and police telegraph box at the northeast corner of Seventh and Franklin streets. The box was destroyed, the force of the collision causing an alarm of fire to be sent in. Three of the motor driven engines and a number of hose and ladders were sent to the scene.

BUTTON LODGES ON INSIDE OF THROAT
ST. LOUIS, Nov. 6.—Thomas Brown, 10-year-old son of Joseph Brown, 1234 Evans avenue, swallowed a metal collar button which caused him to choke and fall unconscious in the arms of his father's home at 11:30 a. m. yesterday. For medical aid and to have the button removed, he was taken to a city ambulance. When Dr. David C. Todd of 4308 Benton avenue arrived the button had passed through the child's throat and it is believed that it will be removed.

'JEAN VALJEAN' ON JOURNEY TO CELL
Cushway Taken to Michigan, Where He Must Serve 18 Years.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—James Cushway, who was alleged to have committed eleven burglaries in Oakland and ten in this city, was started on his way to the penitentiary at Marquette, Mich., today. Cushway is known as the Michigan Jean Valjean and is said to have broken jail as many as a score of times. He was arrested here by Detective Cahel and was serving a twelve-month term in the county jail when his identity was learned. He is being taken back to the penitentiary from which he escaped and must serve eighteen years for robbery.

RAIN RESPONSIBLE FOR SMALL BLAZE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—The rainstorm of last night was directly responsible for a blaze in the residence of Mrs. J. Jones, 78 Schrader street at 2:30 this morning. The water dripping through the roof caused a short circuit of electric wires and a still alarm was sent in to a nearby company. The flames were extinguished with small damage.

ELECTION DINNER IS GREAT SUCCESS
Ladies' Aid Society Realize a Large Sum for Fund.

FRUITVALE, Nov. 6.—The election day dinner served in the Dickerman building, Diamond, yesterday by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Fruitvale Presbyterian church, proved an even greater success than was anticipated. A large sum was realized to swell the fund for the street work being done in front of the church on Champion street.

Lunch was served at noon and dinner during the afternoon until 7 o'clock. The menu consisting of chicken, some of which was donated by Henry C. McKee, Democratic candidate for Assembly, roast beef, pot roast, salads and other good home-cooking and home-made pastries, donated by members of the congregation.

Among the women who assisted at the dinner were Mrs. George Welsh, president of the aid society, Mrs. R. C. Black, secretary, Mrs. K. S. Hill, Mrs. E. Reed, Mrs. C. Russell, Mrs. M. H. Nuhls, Mrs. Franklin Rhoda, Mrs. R. Yale, Mrs. W. S. Kerr, Mrs. E. M. Long, Mrs. S. G. Blanton, Mrs. J. S. Beebe, Mrs. Annie Gibbard, Miss Grace Beebe, Miss Elvira Beebe, Miss Dillon Rhoda, Miss Florence Yale, Miss Alice Ayrens, Miss Leona Ayrens and Miss Kittie Dwing.

TUXEDO is the HIGHEST COST Tobacco Retailed at 10 cents.

The mildest, choicest selected leaves of perfectly aged Burley tobacco from which Tuxedo is made, are the most costly on the market.

Tuxedo costs more for scientific, careful, expert manufacturing.

These two things make it cost more to the wholesaler and more to the retailer.

But Tuxedo sells at the same price to the consumer—10c—as its imitators.

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

Tuxedo could not maintain its price—the highest—unless it maintained its quality.

Tuxedo was the original; it is still the best. It has many imitators; likely it will have even more. But until its many imitators learn to choose and buy only the choicest grades of the highest quality of Burley—

—and learn the Tuxedo secret of selecting this quality tobacco—

—Tuxedo will continue to be the finest pipe tobacco in the world.

Convenient pouch in-lined with moisture-proof paper 5c

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—Fifteen thousand persons on board 50 steamships replying the Pacific received election returns by wireless last night from stations in this city.

PICKPOCKETS AT WORK IN CROWDS
Two Oaklanders Victims of Sneak Thieves; Other Crimes Reported.

Two more victims of pickpockets reported their woes to the police this morning. W. C. Dohrmann, 404 Twelfth street, lost a check for $35 which was taken from an inside coat pocket while he was standing in a crowd reading election returns at Twelfth street and Broadway late last night. The second victim was A. L. Blanchard of 2233 Seventh avenue. His pockets were picked while he rode on a San Pablo avenue car, and a purse containing $5 taken.

Burglars entered the home of Rodney Holmes, 1300 Seventh street, early this morning and took money and jewelry to the amount of $16. A set of black furs belonging to Mrs. Mary Anderson were stolen last night from rooms in the Maryland house, Eighth and Jefferson streets. They were valued at $10. Burglars attempted to force an entrance to the home of C. W. Ames, 1231 Fifth avenue, by cutting a screen in the rear door but were frightened away by a passing motorist.

GOLDEN PLAQUE TROPHY APPROVED
Exposition Officials View Design of Prize to Be Awarded Pentathlon Winner

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—The design of the golden plaque presented by the Panama-Pacific International Exposition as a trophy for the winner of the Pentathlon, which is part of the Olympic games, has been approved by the Exposition officials. This is a challenge trophy and will be competed for a second time in Berlin in 1914. It is planned to be a trophy for the Pentathlon which will be held in this city during the national games in 1915.

AND HIS STOMACH IS ALL RIGHT
Thousands With Poor Teeth Have Good Digestion by Using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets After Meals.

Whether or not we eat too much is a matter for individual judgment. Benjamin Franklin tried the experiment of living on a handful of raisins. But he discovered that the question wasn't what he ate nor the quantity thereof, but one of digestion and assimilation. The normal person eats heartily, and with keen enjoyment. That is health. And health can't anticipate stomach trouble. Let it not anticipate attack of your stomach or indigestion. He knows that the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give quick relief.

THEY GROW HAIR

Certain Ingredients if Properly Combined Stimulate the Human Hair Growth.

Research is one of the most effective germ destroyers ever discovered. Betanaphthol is a most powerful, yet absolutely safe germicide and antiseptic, which prevents development of germ matter and creates a clean, healthy environment. Pilocarpine, although not a coloring matter or dye, is an ingredient well established for its power to restore natural color to human hair.

Borax, because of its well-defined softening and cleansing properties, is most useful in the treatment of scalp and hair diseases. Glycerine acts as a stimulant to the hair bulbs, and has a soothing, healing and nourishing influence. Alcohol is indispensable in medicine because of its antiseptic, stimulating and preservative qualities.

Realax "93" Hair Tonic is chiefly composed of these ingredients, and we believe it is the most effective remedy known to medical science for scalp and hair troubles generally. We personally guarantee it to eradicate dandruff and scalp irritations and to grow hair, even though the scalp in spots is bare of hair, providing, of course, there is life and vitality remaining in the hair roots.

We want every one troubled with scalp disease, dandruff or loss of hair to try Realax "93" Hair Tonic. It does not remove dandruff and promote a growth of hair to the satisfaction of the user, we will without question or quibble return every cent paid for it. This guarantee is printed on every package. It has effected most satisfactory results in 88 out of 100 cases where put to a practical test.

Realax "93" Hair Tonic is entirely unlike and in every particular different from anything else we know of for the purpose of hair treatment. It is recommended by us for try it at our entire risk. Certainly we could offer no better guarantee. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1. The Owl Drug Co., Inc., Tenth and Washington, Thirtieth and Broadway, Sixteenth and San Pablo.

KNIGHTS INSTALL NEW OFFICIALS

First Affairs Held in Recently Constructed Building of Order.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—San Francisco Council No. 615, Knights of Columbus, last evening installed its newly elected officers in the new hall, with the impressive ritual of the order. District Deputy John J. Quinn officiated at the installation. He was assisted by the officers of the council, No. 880. Special significance attached to the event, because it was the first meeting held in the new Knights of Columbus building, on Golden Gate avenue, which has just been completed, and will be dedicated with appropriate ceremony Friday afternoon.

Most Reverend Archbishop P. W. Riordan will bestow his blessing upon the building at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. All members of the order are cordially invited to attend the ceremony.

The following are the new officers installed for the current term in San Francisco Council: Grand knight, John J. O'Toole; deputy grand knight, Warren Shannon; chancellor, John L. Whelan; advocate, Louis V. Crowley; financial secretary, Leo C. Lennon; lecturer, William A. Patch; chaplain, Rev. William P. Sullivan; treasurer, William D. O'Kane; warden, Ernest A. Brannard; trustee, Thomas F. Harnsey; inside guard, George Redmond; outside guard, Daniel Danahy.

JUSTICE IS SPEEDY.

STOCKTON, Nov. 6.—Agostino Ferris yesterday pleaded guilty to forging checks to the amount of $293. He was arrested at 10:30 in the morning and was sentenced to 2 1/2 years to serve seven years in the Folsom penitentiary.

MRS. WM. ARCHER

Tells Mothers What to Do for Delicate Children.

"My fourteen-year-old daughter was very thin and delicate. She had a bad cough so that I became very much alarmed about her health. She was nervous and did not sleep well, had very little appetite and doctors did not help her. Having heard so much about Vinol, I decided to give it a trial. It has helped her wonderfully. She can sleep at night now without coughing once, in fact her cough is gone. Her appetite is greatly improved and she has gained in weight. Vinol is a wonderful medicine and I will always keep it in the house. I wish every mother knew what Vinol will do for delicate children."—Mrs. Wm. Archer, Long Branch, N. J.

This delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil is a wonderful body builder and strength creator for both young and old. We promise to give back your money in every such case where Vinol does not benefit. This shows our faith in Vinol.

CULTURED WOMEN IN WHITE HOUSE

Personalities of Wilson's Wife and Daughters Are Charming.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—With Governor Wilson's removal from Princeton to Washington, the White House will become the home of a charming mother and three cultured daughters.

Clever and talented, each with some fixed vocation in life, fond of entertaining and of entertainment without being absorbed in it and by society, there is sure to be four years in which rational and gracious southern hospitality will be dispensed at the White House.

Mrs. Wilson passed most of her youth in Georgia. She is an artist. Her friends say she undoubtedly would have made a great name for herself if she had chosen to continue her work along those lines in preference to marrying the president-elect.

Miss Margaret Woodrow Wilson is 26 years old. She was born in California. Ga. Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson is a year younger. She, also, was born in Gainesville. Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson is the other daughter, was born in Washington, D. C. The Wilson girls went to school after they were 10 years old. Their studies have been directed entirely by their father and mother.

Miss Margaret Wilson has devoted most of her mature years to the study of music. She has a fine soprano voice which has been cultivated under the tutelage of several competent teachers. She usually spends the winter in New York with the purpose of prosecuting her art. She is fond of all out-door sports; plays tennis, basketball and rides with grace. She is very fond of dancing.

Miss Jessie Wilson is perhaps the most serious of the three daughters. She is a member of the nation's band and the Y. W. C. A., and is very active in the work of the institution. She is a Phi Beta Kappa of the woman's college of Baltimore.

She is the executive of the family, taking a keen interest in her father's campaign for the presidency. It is said he accepted her judgment on many matters of importance relative to it. She, like Miss Margaret, is fond of sports, being an adept at tennis, riding and swimming.

Miss Eleanor Wilson—"Nell," as she is affectionately called by members of her family—received her later tutelage under the care of a governess. She has inherited her mother's talent for painting.

TO REPRODUCE GRAND TRIANON

First Concession for Panama Fair Granted by Exposition Committee.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—The famous Grand Trianon at Versailles, erected by Louis XIV for Mme. de Maintenon in 1687, is to be reproduced at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition in 1915 at a cost of $50,000.

The structure is to be erected in the Concession section of the Exposition, and will house a Diorama of the Napoleon era. It is the first concession granted by the Committee on Concessions and Admissions of the Exposition, which consists of M. H. de Young, chairman; M. J. Brandenstein, A. W. Scott Jr., Thornwell Mullaly, Morris Meyerfield and P. T. Clay.

The granting of this concession is evidence of the care and judgment shown by the committee in selecting the best for the 1915 University Exposition. It is planned to reproduce all the important campaigns of Napoleon I. These scenes will be taken from celebrated paintings in the Grand Gallery of Battles at Versailles. The artists will devote two years to preparing this wonderful exhibit. It will be seen for the first time in America at the 1915 Exposition.

LEPER VICTIM FOUND IN UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

BALTIMORE, Nov. 6.—An Hawaiian mess boy named Kaowli on the battleship Connecticut was discovered to have leprosy early in the week and was taken to a hospital at Philadelphia, where he was placed secretly in a box-car supplied by the federal authorities and equipped as a hospital room with a physician and a nurse. The train left Philadelphia Thursday night for San Francisco, where it is due tonight. The boy will then be sent to his home in Honolulu.

Kaowli had leprosy in its most virulent form. His case was handled with profoundest secrecy by the federal authorities, who feared that the fear of leprosy might create a panic on the Connecticut.

Kaowli had been employed in the kitchen. Physicians examined every man on the battleship and none was found with any symptoms of the disease.

DUKE'S MANSION SOLD.
LONDON, Nov. 6.—The Duke of Sutherland's magnificent town mansion adjoining St. James' Palace, has been purchased by Miller Graham, the California oil magnate. "Thou shalt not steal."

The Political Revolution.

The expected has happened. Party division has had the usual result. With the Republican party split in two nearly equal factions, the Democrats have swept the country by an unprecedented plurality, elected the President, increased their majority in the House of Representatives and probably gained control of the Senate.

For the second time since the war between the States the Democrats have control of all branches of the national government. It will be fortunate for the country if the calamities which followed the first complete accession of the Democrats to power do not follow the election of Woodrow Wilson.

The failure of Cleveland's second administration was due in a measure to extraneous circumstances, but one of its chief causes was the unmanageable character of his party majority in Congress. That majority was discordant and incoherent—a mixture of wild radicalism and mossback conservatism. Both elements drew away from the President, and when the factions agreed upon anything the compromise satisfied neither party and disgusted the country.

Cleveland denounced the tariff bill enacted in 1894 as a "shameful betrayal of the party's pledges." It was worse. It was bleeding a patient already weak and exhausted and in need of nourishment. The tariff was revised in a way that injured every legitimate industrial enterprise in the United States and left the abuses of which the nation still complains uncorrected. Mr. Cleveland was not to blame for the fiasco which wrecked his administration. But the country held his party responsible for the disasters, and very properly, for party responsibility cannot be escaped when government by party prevails.

In 1896 the Democrats attempted to retrieve the blunders they made in revising the tariff by attacking the national credit and endeavoring to fasten on the country a debased coinage which would have brought on still further calamities and plunged the nation into general bankruptcy. We are now to see whether the Democratic party has been taught wisdom by experience and the rod of discipline.

Mr. Wilson is a learned man of high character and patriotic impulses; his temper is conservative and his mind cautious. The American people are ready to confide in him, but they are not sure that his judgment is sound, nor are they convinced that he has the tact and ability to control the huge Democratic majority in Congress, a majority flushed with victory and lacking in the moral restraints that a continued lease of power imposes. Unless this majority can be impressed with a proper sense of responsibility, it is likely to involve Wilson's administration in confusion and render abortive the President's efforts to give the country a rational and progressive government.

The election of Wilson is not so much a vote of confidence in the Democratic party as it is an expression of disgust with the wrangles in the Republican party. However, it is an evidence that the people recognize in him an ideal statesman if he measures up to the promise he has given. They have given him their trust, and the national welfare during the next few years will depend largely upon how worthily he wears the high honor conferred upon him.

Among the dead on the field of Armageddon we find our old friend Sumner Crosby. Peace to his remains! The Martinez Standard will chant the coronach over his bier. The chief mourner will be worthy of the funeral.

Who Knifed Joe Knowland?

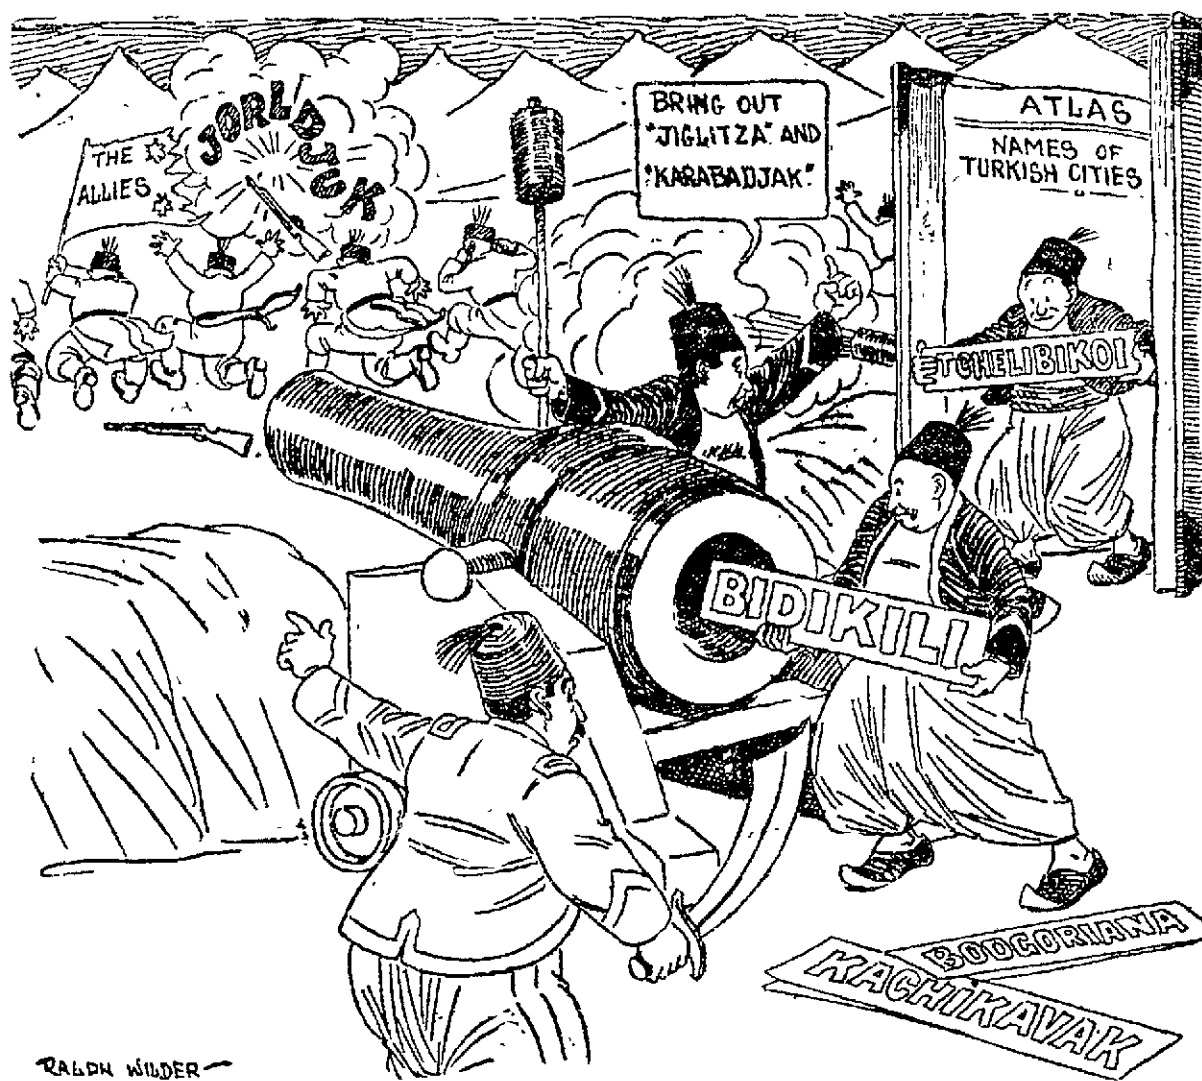

J. Stitt Wilson received more than double the vote cast for Eugene Debs, who polled a little more than the total Socialist strength in Alameda county. Whence did he draw this excess of votes? It is certain that it did not come from the regular Republicans; nor did it come from the Democrats, a majority of whom voted for Knowland, realizing that their own nominee had no chance. But thousands of Roosevelt ballots were stamped for Wilson, indicating unmistakably that a large number of Roosevelt's supporters preferred the election of a Socialist to the return of a Republican who has served his constituency with singular fidelity and success. The ballots told a tale of treachery that cannot be explained away nor excused. The election of Stitt Wilson would have been a misfortune for Oakland. It is regrettable that factional feeling should so carry men away that they will inflict an injury on the public to gratify resentment provoked by defeat. Mr. Knowland has a handsome plurality and a clear majority, but had he not been knifed in an unexpected quarter his majority would have been in the neighborhood of 20,000. It is to be hoped that reason and patriotism will in future prevail over factional feeling.

Something of heartiness is lacking in the telegram of congratulation the Colonel sent Wilson. He congratulated Wilson on the high honor conferred on him, but he did not wish success to his administration. President Taft expressed a hearty wish that his successful competitor would meet with success in administering the affairs of the nation. He did not think so much of the honor as he did of the public welfare and peace of mind of the man who is to take his place in the White House.

It is reasonably certain that the annexation amendment has been decisively beaten in the State. It is a great relief to the people of this county that a grave menace to their future peace and prosperity has been averted, but it is especially gratifying that every town on this side of the bay gave a large majority against the amendment. Up to the last moment the San Francisco annexation band kept asserting that Berkeley and Alameda were in favor of annexation. They used this falsehood as an argument why the people of the interior should vote for the amendment. Both those cities have rejected the amendment by sweeping majorities, thus giving the lie to the impudent statements persistently sent out from San Francisco. Los Angeles voted the right way. The people of Alameda county are thankful to their Southern neighbors for refusing to sanction an act of gross injustice to the cities on the eastern shore of the bay. They have done the State a service by disapproving a scheme that had in it the elements of monopoly and was aimed at the right of local self-government.

Our old friend the silent voter came to the front yesterday in a small plane and spent many calculations.

The Turks Might Have Won if They Had Used Some of Their Town Names as Ammunition

—CHICAGO RECORD-HERALD.

The End of the Turk in Europe.

Constantinople was captured by assault in 1453 by the Turkish host led by Mahomet II. Christian Europe abandoned the Greek empire to its fate, and the wave of Moslem conquest flowed over the Balkan peninsula and into the valley of the Danube, to the very gates of Vienna. For the last hundred years the Turk has been steadily losing ground, and his expulsion from Europe appears imminent. As a factor in modern civilization he has proved a failure. He has been tried and found wanting. The Turk has been unable to adapt himself to the conditions of modern advancement. His government is a survival of Asiatic barbarism and despotism. Its spirit is unprogressive and intolerant. It is a political system built upon the religious teachings of a desert Arab, who attempted to give by crude formulas, adapted to the primitive conditions which existed in Arabia a thousand years ago, the law to the whole world. These formulas are impregnated with the fatalistic philosophy and the fanaticism of the unchangeable East. They have held the Mohammedan world in the thrall of a dead hand. Their fruit has been chronic misrule and obstinate resistance to new ideas and new conceptions of the relation of governments to the people. The Koran has been an obstacle to the advancement of human kind, and a warrant for oppressing and plundering Christians subject to its rule. Civilization has at last risen against it and challenged its right to sway the destinies of other nations opposed to its precepts and the political order, or disorder, of which it is the foundation. The modern European Turk possesses many fine qualities; he is brave, courteous, hospitable and honest in his commercial dealings. But his religious and political systems are built upon the crude ideas of a desert seer. His religion binds him to the barbarism of the east, and his society and government show the stagnating influence of intellectual and moral apathy and fatalism. He has outlived his day, and must be driven from the land he has cursed for five hundred years and in which he is still an alien and a stranger. The Mohammedan empire which extended after the fall of Constantinople from the Adriatic Sea to the Indus, and held within its confines the mouths of the Danube, the Dnieper and the Volga, is about to be extinguished in blood, so far as Europe is concerned. It entered Europe with fire and sword it is being pushed back to the desert whence it came.

Up to Monday night Stitt Wilson kept saying in his speeches that next December his office would be in Washington. He did not know that Congressmen do not enter upon their duties immediately after election. However, he did not come within a mile of being elected, and will have time to study up the constitution and the laws of the United States before he runs for Congress again. That he will run again for something is certain. Within two years he has run for Governor, Mayor of Berkeley and for Congress, and each time made promises that he knew it was impossible for him or anybody else to fulfill. During his campaign for Congress he promised to banish poverty if he was elected. Stitt Wilson evidently thought the majority of the voters in this district were fools. They have shown him his mistake, nevertheless he will probably hand out the same old bunk the next time he goes office-seeking.

The battle of Armageddon seems to have gone against the Lord. But perhaps the Lord did not recognize his own armies under the leadership of George W. Perkins and Reformer Bill Flinn.

For many years military experts have been saying that the bayonet is an obsolete weapon. Yet the Japanese used it frequently in the war with Russia. In the Balkan war the Bulgarians have used the bayonet in all their assaults on the Turkish lines. They carried many fortified positions at the point of the bayonet, and the Montenegrins also used the bayonet with effect in rushing the Turkish hosts. The bayonet has not gone into the discard yet, the military experts notwithstanding.

In all probability this election will make certain the ratification of the income tax amendment to the Federal Constitution. Thirty-four States have already ratified it, and the assent of only two more is required to make the amendment effective. The ten States that have not acted are: Delaware, Florida, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New Mexico, Pennsylvania, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia and Wyoming.

A pleasant reception was tendered Rev. Dr. Chapman of the Brooklyn Presbyterian Church by the members of his congregation at the church parlors. The meeting was called to order by P. J. Brown, who announced the following program: Chorus, congregation; vocal solo, Miss Clara Pierce; reading, Miss Gertrude Shurborne; address of welcome, Rev. Mr. Alexander; reply, Dr. Chapman. The Macdonough Theater will soon hold its opening and society is expected to attend the first night en masse. The Duff Opera company will come from the Baldwin Theater in San Francisco to sing "Cavalleria Rusticana." Charles Bassett and Miss Helen Von Donhoff are members of the company.

WAR AND THE AIRSHIP

The whole science of war and military strategy that has been based on the campaigns and movements of armies by the great military commanders of the past has been knocked into "what is popularly termed a 'cocked hat' by the flying machines of today and the wireless telegraph. So true is this that the present military maneuvers in England have been summarily stopped because of the fact that, in spite of all the strategy, it was impossible to make any move on either side that could not be clocked or rendered futile.

Military commanders base most of their movements on the reports of their scouts. The best scout on horseback in the past could not cover more than sixty miles a day, which would practically mean a distance of thirty miles in a given direction, and then he was only able to report on a very small part of the enemy's movements.

An ordinary flying machine scout can cover more space in one hour than the best scout on horseback could in a day, and can fly over such obstacles as mountains, lakes and forests, which the ordinary scout could not compass at all. Then again, the scout in the flying machine can see the entire opposing army from a safe height and distance and can make a more comprehensive report than a regiment of scouts could in the old way.

That is not all; nor is it the most essential feature of the efficiency of the flying machine as a scout. Four of the latest types of French machines can easily and certainly travel at a speed of 100 miles an hour and at this speed can defy any ordinary storm. The best that an army can do in an enemy's country is to march thirty miles a day with commissariat, artillery and infantry. With a flying machine that will travel 100 miles an hour the actual movements of that army can be accurately known from four days to a week in advance; which means that an opposing army could never be trapped or captured as in the past, and any city could be successfully evacuated and destroyed, if necessary, before an invading army could reach it.

Again: All Northern European fleets must pass up and down the English Channel in going to or from the Atlantic ocean. The channel is more than 300 miles long from Ram's Gate to Land's End. The fastest fleet could not move more than 20 knots an hour through this channel, and would be at least fifteen hours in passing. A French flying machine could cover the distance in three hours. The French have at the present time more than 500 military flying machines, and will have 2000 at the end of another year. These machines, darting over a fleet at a speed of 100 miles an hour and at a height of a mile, and dropping dynamite bombs on the fleet, could make the trip more hazardous than it has ever been in the past, if not actually impossible.

All of which means that the flying machines have already made the present expensive military establishments look cheap and foolish, and if war is to be continued—but why continue war?—Boston Globe.

Start Your Baby With Sound Health

Regular Bowel Movement From Childhood on Forestalls Future Serious Diseases.

We cannot all start life with the advantages of money, but every child born is entitled to the heritage of good health. Through unfortunate ignorance or carelessness in the feeding of a baby its tiny stomach may become deranged. The disorder spreads to the bowels and before the mother realizes it the infant's comfort and health depend on causing it great suffering. The condition is allowed to continue, grave ailments often result.

There is, however, no occasion for alarm, and the sensible thing to do—before it should be done instantly—is to give the baby a small dose of a mild laxative-tonic. In the opinion of a great many people, among them several well-known persons as the mother of Floyd Robertson, 136 S. 11th street, Lincoln, Neb., and Mrs. C. L. Williams, Redwood, Wash., the proper remedy is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a pleasant-tasting laxative which every person likes. It is mild, non-gripping, and contains that most excellent of all digestants, pepsin.

This remedy is especially intended for infants, children, women, old people and all others to whom harsh cathartics, salt waters, pills, etc., are distasteful. In fact, in the common disorders of life, such as constipation, liver trouble, indigestion, biliousness, headaches and the various other disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, nothing is more sure than this mild laxative-tonic, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Two generations of people are using it today, and thousands of families keep it constantly in the house, for every member of the family can use it. It can be obtained of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle, the latter being the size bought by families who already know its value.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way, please send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 415 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

ILLINOIS SOCIETY TO HAVE PROGRAM

"Old Home" Affair Is Planned by the Well Known Organization.

The last regular meeting of the Illinois society was held for members only last week at the home of Mrs. Viola Murphy. The next regular public meeting and "dime entertainment" will be held on Monday evening, November 11, at Havens hall, 529 Twelfth street, being in the nature of an "old home" affair.

A good program is being arranged. Professor J. P. Smith of the Berkeley business college has promised the address of the evening. Mrs. Fred Lamm is to recite. Miss Hazel Lark will give a piano solo; a pupil of Miss Alice Davis will play a violin solo; Mrs. John Connolly will sing. Other features are being arranged for. Refreshments will be served and a good time is promised.

All Illinoisans and their families and friends have been urged to attend. Many new members are joining the ranks and many more will be needed before the fair year.

ELOPEMENT WEEK OF COURTSHIP

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 6.—Benage S. Joseph Jr., son of President Joseph of the Portland Railway, Light and Power company, and Miss Margaret Dosh, youngest daughter of Colonel and Mrs. George Dosh, eloped to Vancouver Monday afternoon and were married. The couple had been devoted to each other ever since they became acquainted, a week ago, and they decided not to wait for the formalities of an announced engagement.

Monday afternoon Joseph Jr. attended a local playhouse with Miss Dosh, and immediately after they took the car for Vancouver, Wash., and secured a marriage license. The nuptial knot was tied by the chaplain at the Vancouver barracks.

Yesterday they telephoned their respective families what they had done and were forgiven. Miss Dosh's family is one of the oldest in Oregon, and she is the youngest of six children. She is a sister of Arno Dosh, the magazine writer, and has many friends in San Francisco society.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 6.—Albert S. Rawlings, who told the police he was chief yeoman on the United States cruiser Chattanooga, surrendered to the Long Beach officials yesterday, saying he was wanted for desertion. Rawlings said he left the cruiser September 10 last merely to break the "monotony of the service." The Chattanooga is now at Bremerton navy yard.

"Fifty Years Ago When Golden Wedding Rye Was Young"

Nature puts nothing but mildness and mellowness into the full, perfect grain ripened by the sunshine.

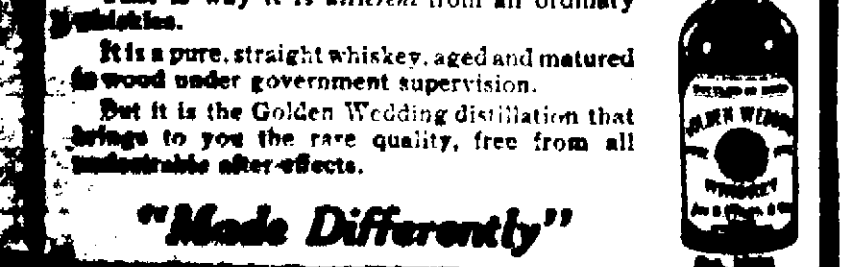

Finch's Golden Wedding Bottled in Bond

As distilled by special formula and method, perfected to keep in all the original flavor and quality in their natural purity.

That is why it is different from all ordinary whiskeys.

It is a pure, straight whiskey, aged and matured in wood under government supervision.

But it is the Golden Wedding distillation that brings to you the rare quality, free from all undesirable after-effects.

FREAK BETS MUST BE PAID BY LOSERS

One Girl School Teacher Will Wear Men's Socks All Winter.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Quickest of all the strange bets that must be paid on the day after election is that of the man who must kiss the first ten horses he meets in the street if his candidate is defeated. But there are plenty of other and weirder bets to be made in case of defeat, and here are some of them:

A Los Angeles judge or an artist must eat a whole cow.

Up in Connecticut a girl will have to kiss six cows in the presence of her friends.

A well-known Scotch resident of the Bronx would have had to wear his hat to work for a month if Roosevelt had been elected.

One man agreed to hang all the lamp posts on Broadway between Herald and Longacre squares if Sulzer was defeated.

A Brooklyn man must invite his mother-in-law to his house for the winter. Several men will have to go swimming at Coney Island every Sunday for a month.

A Mount Vernon resident will walk to work in New York for a week.

A Brooklyn girl will give a gum drop to the first ten men she meets.

A Staten Islander must live on oysters for ten days. Many men will shave their heads, mustaches, sleep crossways in bed, wear street clothes to bed, wear wooden hats, roll peanuts or potatoes.

An Orange man agrees to kiss his wife every fifteen minutes.

Miss Katherine Henry of St. Elmo, Ill., a pretty school teacher, became so enthusiastic in her belief that Roosevelt would win that she promised to wear men's white socks all winter if he were defeated. Lester Wythe, who has the other end of the bet, will have to wear a straw hat all winter if he loses.

CHINESE SEAMEN WILL BE BARRED

Captain Charles Severn Says Oriental Crews Will Soon Pass.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 6.—Despite the fact that many British and foreign steamers are now carrying complete crews of Orientals, usually Chinese with Japanese boatwains, it is the opinion of officers on or trans-Pacific liners and freighters plying between the Continent and Asia that soon the Chinese seamen will be a thing of the past. This is the belief of Captain Charles Severn, formerly of the Chinese steamer Hing Chong Kow, who spent a day in Vancouver on his way to the old country.

"As possibly you know," said the captain, "a great deal has been written and a great deal more has been said concerning the desirability and efficiency of Oriental crews in general. I think possibly, if you will look the matter up, the things that have been said have been of a most uncomplimentary nature. That is, at least, if master mariners with 'chinik' crews have had any thing to do with the saying. Not only is the typical Chinese seaman desirous of dodging anything that has the appearance of honest toil, but he is usually of a very independent spirit, and has absolutely no breaking in to breaking any cordials he may make through his head man."

Captain Stevens cited the trouble experienced on the British steamer Strathmore, from Newcastle, which is loading barley on the Columbia.

WANT HARVARD MAN FROM EVERY STATE

BOSTON, Nov. 6.—With the possible exception of a new plan of entrance requirements, no single act of recent years promises to do so much toward nationalizing Harvard University as the decision of the Associated Harvard Club to offer new scholarships, each valued at $500, and each to be awarded to some man in those States which now have a representation of less than four in the university.

The ultimate plan is to insure for registration in every incoming class a representative from each and every State in the Union. The award is to be made in the fall of 1913 to a man entering the freshman class and is to be held for a single year. On the basis of founding scholarships in those States whose representation is less than four, there are fourteen States in which awards will eventually be made.

Although only eleven scholarships have been provided so far, it is expected that the list of fourteen will soon be completed. Thus in four years there should be four men in the university from each State as a permanent pledge of the continued democracy of the university, while thereafter there would be graduates returning to their States, carrying with them the reputation of Harvard as fertile seed for new growth in influence and power.

NEPHEW OF CURRY TO BECOME BENEDICT

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 6.—One of the most important social functions of the winter season in the capital city will be the wedding of Leonard Curry and Miss Zola Crosby. The engagement of the couple was announced yesterday.

Zola is a daughter of former Secretary of State Charles F. Curry and is superintendent of the certificate division of the secretary of state's office at the present time. He is a prominent Sacramento man and is in the younger social and business circles of the capital city.

Miss Crosby is an accomplished young woman, whose home was formerly in Redding, Shasta county. She is now holding a responsible position in the Sacramento office of the State of California Electric Company. It was while she was filling a position as stenographer at the last session of the legislature that the romance began. The date of the wedding has not been definitely set, but it will be a grand affair.

MAY LOSE LANDS.

STOCKTON, Nov. 6.—Thirty separate complaints have been filed against the Realty Construction & Mortgage Company of Los Angeles and others by the Farmers & Merchants bank of this city to foreclose liens on as many as 100 in the Harrell tract, a well-known residence district in the western part of the city. The city ordered the streets in the tract improved at a cost of $50,000 and the company has failed to pay the assessments. The contractor assigned his claims to the bank, which now has the right to foreclose. The local manager of the company, C. B. Harrell, left the city recently.

HOME CLUB BOOK EXHIBIT OPENED

Elaborate Display of Volumes Made at Headquarters: Lectures to Be Given.

With new books of the year, original illustrations, findings, posters, place and Christmas cards on exhibition, the Home Club's display of books opened today. It will continue until November 14, at the club rooms, Fourth and Cottage avenues.

The principal instigator for the local exhibition has been the success of the New York exhibition, which has established the advantages of bringing all the books of the year into one place where they can be seen and examined by the general public.

The publishers, book sellers and art dealers are co-operating with the club in its effort to make the exhibition as successful as possible, and it is proposed to make the book exhibition an annual affair hereafter.

The Hopkins Art Institute and the California School of Art at Berkeley will contribute by showing the different stages of making books, from the book plates to the completion of artistic findings.

Among the publishers who will exhibit are:

Dean Elder, Sunset Magazine Company, Pacific Rural Press Company, Scientific Press, Mining Press.

Whitaker Ray, Wiggins Company, The Argyle, Oakland High School, Zeph Skinner Eldridge, Hopkins Art Institute, California School of Arts and Crafts, Alameda High School, Oakland Polytechnic High.

A large loan exhibit of new and rare books from every part of the world will be made by the following named sellers of books:

Smith Brothers, Paul Elder, The Kono Studio, White House Book Department, Zeph Skinner Eldridge, John Howell, John J. Newbigh.

Working with the president, Mrs. Grant E. Elder, is a committee on general arrangement, consisting of Mrs. John Yule, Mrs. George W. Percy, Miss Helen Powell, Mrs. G. E. Brinkerhoff, Miss Lucy Nelson and Norman Ellis.

OPEN TO PUBLIC.

Commencing Friday, November 8, the exhibition will be open to the public, afternoon and evening, until November 14, an admission fee of 25 cents being charged.

On Thursday evening short addresses will be made by Charles L. Smith, Paul Elder and Mrs. J. C. Howell, librarian of the University of California.

The reading committee for Thursday evening, November 7, consists of Messrs. and Mesdames: Dr. Granville E. Shuey, Arthur L. Breed, W. W. Crane, George B. M. Gray, Charles E. Cornell, Charles W. Rimes, F. Baker, Dr. Harry Carr, Dr. J. H. Pond, Walter Ruz, E. A. Webster, Dr. G. T. Brinkerhoff, E. C. Morrison, F. M. Smith, R. H. Chamberlain, Dr. J. L. Lohse, Dr. J. K. McLean, Bernard F. BURGLAR CAUGHT WITH HIS LOOT

Cook Captured as He Emerges From the House He Has Burglarized.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—Caught as he was emerging from a residence which he had ransacked from cellar to garret, at a late hour last night, George Van Huse, a cook, was taken into custody by Special Policemen Hines and charged at the Richmond station with burglary.

Hines was patrolling his beat when approaching the residence of Paul E. Mack, 125 Twenty-seventh avenue, he noticed Van Huse emerging with a large bundle.

The man's actions were suspicious, and he introduced him and rating the doorbell of the residence. Receiving no response, he took his man before Lieutenant Anderson and examined his loot. A miscellaneous collection of household valuables aggregating about $500 were found, and on returning to the house, Hines learned that the Mack family had been burglarized, watching the election returns. The burglar had entered by a rear window.
